CONGRESSIONAL BILL CB-XXX-XX
SENATE BILL GF26-23

AS INTRODUCED

An Act of Legislation to amend the SGA Code Annotated, modifying the date of which the SGA President and SGA Vice President begin & end their term; providing for short title, providing for codification, and providing for an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION:

Section 1: Title: This act shall be known and may be cited as the "SGA President and SGA Vice President Term Update Act of 2026 (Code Annotated)."

Section 2: Purpose: The purpose of this act shall be to amend the SGA Code Annotated, modifying the date of which the SGA President and SGA Vice President begin & end their term, as well as creating the SGA Executive Transition Committee.

Section 3: AMENDATORY: The University of Oklahoma Student Government Association's Code Annotated Title I, III, and X are amended as follows. For the purposes of this bill, all items removed shall be denoted with a ~~strikethrough~~. All items added shall be denoted with an underline.

Chapter I-6 Inauguration

1. Date. The SGA President and Vice-President shall be inaugurated ~~one week after validation of the presidential election~~ upon administration of the Oath of Office to the SGA President and SGA Vice President.
2. Ceremony.[2] The ~~outgoing Executive Branch~~ Executive Transition Committee shall organize the Inauguration of the new SGA President and Vice-President.[2]
3. Oath of President and Vice President. The Chief Justice of the SGA Superior Court will administer the oath of office to the incoming SGA President and Vice-President. If the Chief Justice is unavailable to administer the oath, the Chief Justice[2] shall select another person to do so. The oath shall read as follows: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of Student Government Association President/Vice-President, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and uphold the Constitution of the Student Government Association." After the oath has been administered the President will give an inaugural address.[3]

4. New Executive Officers. At the election of the Undergraduate Student Congress Chair and Graduate Student Service Chair, the outgoing Chair shall administer the oath for the newly Election Commissioner.[2] The SGA President shall administer the Oath of Office to the newly elected Campus Activities Council Chair at the State of the SGA Address.[2] The oath for these officers shall read as follows: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office for which I have been elected, and will uphold the rules and represent the members of the organization to which I belong to the best of my ability."[4]

5. ~~Transitional Term of the President and Vice President. The newly elected President and Vice President shall officially assume the role and all benefits attributed to the power of the office one week after the validation of the election by the Superior Court.[5]~~

Chapter III-1 General Provisions

1. Power. The executive power of the SGA shall be vested in the SGA President.[1]
2. Members. The SGA President, SGA Vice President, and any SGA officer that is elected in a SGA sponsored election and/or receives a SGA stipend and is not otherwise designated as a member of the Legislative or Judicial Branch, shall be considered a member of the Executive Branch.[2]
3. Succession of Offices. In case of the removal or impeachment of the SGA President from office, resignation from office, or their inability to discharge the powers and duties of the office, those powers and duties shall devolve to the Vice President.[3]
    1. Vacancy in Office of Vice President. In the case of the removal or impeachment of the SGA Vice President from office, resignation from office, or their inability to discharge the powers and duties of the office, the office shall be filled by SGA Presidential appointment with the advice and consent of the Legislative Branch.
4. Transition & Inauguration
    1. SGA Executive Transition Committee. The SGA Executive Transition Committee shall be established.
        1. Purpose. The SGA Executive Transition Committee shall work towards ensuring a smooth, knowledgeable transition for the incoming SGA President & Vice President.
        2. Leadership. The SGA President shall chair the SGA Executive Transition Committee or may designate a committee member to serve as Chair, temporarily or permanently in their place by providing notification to committee members. The SGA Executive Transition Committee Chair shall work with committee members to set meeting times, designate responsibilities, and execute other prudent activities.

3. Membership. The SGA Executive Transition Committee shall consist of the SGA President, SGA Vice President, SGA Chief of Staff, CAC Chair, Undergraduate Student Congress Chair, Graduate Student Senate Chair, incoming SGA President, incoming SGA Vice President, and SGA Advisor, and other members as invited by the Committee Chair.
4. Meetings. The SGA Executive Transition Committee shall commence meetings the academic week following validation of the election of the incoming SGA President & Vice President. Meetings shall take place at a cadence deemed appropriate by committee members. Meetings shall cease after inauguration of the incoming SGA President & SGA Vice President.
5. Advisory Nature. The SGA Executive Transition Committee is advisory only and shall have no authority to make any binding decisions. Notwithstanding SGACA Title 1, Chapter 5, the Committee shall not be subject to the Oklahoma Open Meetings Act.

2. Inauguration. The inauguration of the SGA President and Vice President shall take place during the first academic week of the spring semester following their election in the fall semester, provided the election has been validated. Should validation remain pending, inauguration shall take place as soon as practicable after validation occurs. The incoming SGA President shall determine the exact date and time of the inauguration ceremony within that week, in consultation with the SGA Executive Transition Committee.
3. Oath of President and Vice President. The Chief Justice of the SGA Superior Court will administer the oath of office (referenced in Title I, Chapter 6, section 3) to the incoming SGA President and Vice-President at the inauguration of the incoming SGA President and Vice-President. If the Chief Justice is unavailable to administer the oath, the Chief Justice[4] shall select another person to do so. After the oath has been administered the President will give an inaugural address.

5. Structure of Executive Branch
    1. President. The President is the chief officer of the Executive Branch.
    2. Vice President. The Vice President may perform any Presidential duty with the express consent of the President. The Vice President shall ~~be the~~ serve as student advisor for the Crimson Leadership Association.
        1. Crimson Leadership Association. The SGA Crimson Leadership Association shall prepare its members for future involvement within the various branches of the SGA. The Crimson Leadership Association will also promote the programs and positions of, raise awareness and understanding of, and advocate for first year student involvement within the SGA as a whole, as well as other student organizations on the OU campus. There shall be two Co-Chairs of the council charged with overseeing the delegation and reporting to the SGA Vice President.

3. The Executive Cabinet. Led by the President, Vice President, and the Chief of Staff, The Executive Cabinet shall support the efforts made by its leaders to reflect the continued interests of the student body, SGA, and platforms.
4. Rulemaking.
    1. Delegation. Any properly appointed or established member or unit of the Executive Branch may perform a Presidential duty with the expressed consent and approval of the President, provided said duty is consistent with said member's underlying responsibilities.
    2. Funding. The President shall make a budget for the Executive Branch, excluding the Crimson Leadership Association, for submission to the Legislature.
    3. Removal. The President may remove any member of the Executive Cabinet at will with notice.[7]

Chapter III-2 The President

1. Power. The executive power of the SGA shall be vested in the SGA President.[1]
    1. Power to Make Appointments. The SGA President shall have the power, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Branch, to nominate and appoint all officers of the SGA not otherwise provided for. The SGA President shall have the power to establish Executive Staff Positions, to assist them in fulfilling their presidential duties, with the consent of the Legislative Branch. The SGA President shall have the sole power to appoint personnel to fill these positions.[2]
        1. Appointment of the General Counsel. General counsel shall be appointed by the SGA President, with the advice and consent of the SGA Legislative Branch. General counsel shall be recommended to the SGA President by a committee composed of: the outgoing general counsel; a representative named by each house of the SGA Legislative Branch; and a representative named by the Vice President for Student Affairs. If the SGA President chose some other candidate, such candidate would not be recommended by the selection committee, as required. An Interim General Counsel, whose appointment has been initiated, may remain in office until confirmed or rejected.[3]
        2. Appointments to Search Committees. Representatives to Search Committees shall be nominated by the SGA President and approved by the Chair of the Undergraduate Student Congress and the Chair of the Graduate Student Senate.

2. Interim Vacancies. The SGA President shall have the power to fill all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the Legislative Branch. The interim appointment shall expire at the end of the Legislative Branch recess. An Interim General Counsel, whose appointment has been initiated, may remain in office until confirmed or rejected.[4]

2. Duties. The SGA President shall take care that all acts of the Legislative Branch are faithfully executed. The SGA President shall represent the SGA on all official occasions and coordinate all student activities and services. They may address the Legislative Branch, recommend to their consideration such measures as they shall judge necessary and expedient; they may convene the Legislative Branch in extraordinary, joint session.[5]
    1. State of the SGA Address. The State of the SGA Address shall be organized by the Executive Branch and be held after the Spring Election but before Pre-finals week of the Spring Semester[6] to deliver an address concerning the current state of Association. The address shall include, but is not limited to, an outline of the current administration's accomplishments up to that[7] point. The chairs shall speak on the accomplishments of their branch and the upcoming goals of their respective branches.[8] An official copy of the State of the SGA will be delivered to the Chairs of the Graduate Student Senate and Undergraduate Student Congress within three business days of the address.[6] At this meeting the SGA President shall administer the Oath of Office to the CAC Chair.[8]
    2. Delegation of Duties. The President may delegate any duties, including representational functions, to the Executive Staff that they deem necessary.[9]
    3. Addressing the Legislature. The SGA President shall address the Legislature and/or the Houses of the Legislature. Said addresses shall include, but not be limited to, a report on the official activity, policy, and agenda of the SGA President. At the time of such addresses, the SGA President shall answer questions relating to the SGA and/or the Executive Branch from members of the Legislature and any members of the SGA present. Such addresses may be further regulated by an Act of Legislation and shall be according to the procedures of the relevant House, but in no case shall there be fewer than three in each of the fall and spring semesters. This duty shall not be delegated.[10]
    4. Monitoring Use of Allocated Office Space. The SGA President shall be responsible for the enactment of the provisions of Title I0, Chapter 3 and Title I4, Chapter 3 (regarding the monitoring of allocated office space) and may appoint whatever agents they deem necessary for this purpose with the advice and consent of the legislative branch.[11]
    5. Budget Submission. The SGA President shall be responsible for submitting budget requests to the SGA Budgetary Committee during the primary budget process on behalf of the Executive Branch, including all boards, committees, and commissions found in Title X of the Code annotated. The President shall also be responsible for submitting the SGA Operations budget request during the primary budget process.

6. Chair Weekly SGA Leadership Meeting. The SGA President shall serve as the Chair of weekly SGA Leadership Meetings. SGA Leadership Meetings shall include the SGA President, the CAC Chair, the Chair of the Undergraduate Student Congress, the Chair of the Graduate Student Senate, the SGA Advisor, the University Vice President for Student Affairs, the University Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs, the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs, ~~and~~ the Senior Associate Director of Student Life, and any other member of the SGA as invited by the SGA President.

3. General Meetings. Upon petition by ten percent (10%) of the SGA, the Student President shall call and preside over a general meeting of the SGA.[12]
4. Presidential Veto. Acts of Legislation, Concurring Resolutions, and Joint Resolutions passed by Each House must be sent to the Student President for approval and may be vetoed by the SGA President. If the SGA President vetoes any Acts of Legislation, Concurring Resolution, or Joint Resolution, then it will be returned to both Houses for reconsideration and will be enacted if two-thirds (2/3) of the present and voting membership of each House votes to pass it. If any Act of Legislation, Concurring Resolution or Joint Resolution is neither signed nor vetoed by the SGA President within ten (10) days (Sundays excepted) of being presented to them, the same shall be enacted in like manner as if they had signed it.[13]
    1. Differing Versions. If a different version of an Act of Legislation is signed by the Chair and/or President than was passed, technically the bill has not been signed. This would make the bill invalid.[14]
5. Term. The term of the President shall begin ~~one week after the validation of election~~ upon administration of the Oath of Office and shall end upon administration of the Oath of Office to their successor, unless the office is sooner vacated as provided in Art. IV, § 2 of the SGA Constitution.
6. Salary. The SGA President shall receive for their services a salary. Said salary shall neither be increased nor decreased during the period for which they shall have been elected. They shall also not receive, within that period, any other stipend from the University of Oklahoma, except for loans or other financial aids. The SGA Constitution forbids the President from receiving University stipends from any University position other than the stipends received from their respective office.[16]
    1. Exceptions. The SGA Constitution does not forbid the President from receiving University stipends from any University position other than the stipends received from their respective office where the individual circumstances demonstrate that it would be inequitable or in the case of financial aid, etc.[17]
    2. The SGA President must submit to the SGA General Counsel notification of other employment by the University in order to determine if a conflict of interest exists.

Chapter III-3 The Vice President

1. Power. The executive power of the SGA shall be vested in the SGA President. There shall also be a SGA Vice President.[1]
2. Term. The term of the Vice President shall begin ~~one week after the validation of election~~ upon administration of the Oath of Office and shall end upon administration of the Oath of Office to their successor, unless the office is sooner vacated as provided in Art. IV, § 2 of the SGA Constitution.
3. Salary. The SGA Vice President shall receive for their services a salary. Said salary shall neither be increased nor decreased during the period for which they shall have been elected. They shall also not receive, within that period, any other stipend from the University of Oklahoma, except for loans or other financial aids. The SGA Constitution forbids the Vice President from receiving University stipends from any University position other than the stipends received from their respective office.[3]
    1. Exceptions. The SGA Constitution does not forbid the Vice President from receiving University stipends from any University position other than the stipends received from their respective office where the individual circumstances demonstrate that it would be inequitable or in the case of financial aid, etc.[4]
    2. The SGA Vice President must submit to the SGA General Counsel notification of other employment by the University in order to determine if a conflict of interest exists.
4. Duties. The SGA Vice President shall be responsible for advising the Crimson Leadership Association Co-Chairs as well as any other duties delegated to them by the SGA President. The SGA Vice President may create Vice Presidential Task Forces with permission of the SGA President, as outlined in Chapter 4 of this Title.
