Remarks:

- The university encourages masking indoors. The university strongly encourages masking for all individuals in high-density settings, such as classrooms and at special events.
- All communications with me other than during the class meeting shall be done through a Zoom meeting during my office hours or by an e-mail. This includes any question or discussion you may have right after a class meeting.
- Students are required to attend all class meetings. This means that a student missing a class meeting will take full responsibility for making up the lecture materials.
- All student activities are individual and cheating of any form will result in a formal academic misconduct charge.
- Any student who has a disability that may prevent him or her from fully demonstrating his or her abilities should contact me personally as soon as possible so we can discuss accommodations necessary to ensure full participation and facilitate your educational opportunities.
- Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy-related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible.

- It is the policy of the University to excuse the absences of students that result from religious observances and to reschedule examinations and additional required classwork that may fall on religious holidays, without penalty.
- For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, or stalking, the University offers a variety of resources. To learn more or to report an incident, please contact the Sexual Misconduct Office at 405/325-2215 (8 to 5, M-F) or smo@ou.edu.
