Application Packet for Fall 2016 AND Spring 2017 Internship

Description: The Urban Teacher Preparation Academy (UTPA) was created to provide more highly effective teachers for Oklahoma City urban public schools. Its participants are current OU-JRCoE/TE+ students who have completed a considerable portion of their undergraduate studies and have expressed an interest in teaching in these high need urban schools. In return for the commitment UTPA participants make, the UTPA provides a year-long clinical experience with intensive mentoring, two years of additional mentoring, an enhanced curriculum, unique learning experiences, high quality professional development, and financial incentives.

Completed application must be received by March 1, 2016, at 5:00 p.m.

The following application materials must be received together:

1. Completed application (found on page 2 of this packet).
2. A one page maximum type-written statement describing:
   a. Why you want to participate in this program,
   b. What skills, knowledge, characteristic and experiences have prepared you for working with students from urban schools, and
   c. What you hope to gain from this experience.
3. An unofficial OU transcript
4. Three completed recommendation forms accompanied by three recommendation letters. Each form/letter combination must be in a sealed envelope with the reference person’s signature across the seal (form found on pages 3 and 4 of this packet). No recommendations from relatives are allowed.
5. A degree audit. This can be obtained from the Undergraduate Advising Office. Allow 24 hours for processing.

To submit the application in person:
Teresa K. DeBacker, Ph. D.
Associate Dean for Professional Education
Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education

The student whose name appears above has applied for admittance to OU’s Urban Teacher Preparation Academy. As a reference, you are asked to rate the students according to the following scale and write a letter of recommendation. Please be candid in your appraisal. Your responses will be strictly confidential.

Rating Scale:

Outstanding—The candidate demonstrates the quality to an extensive degree or in an exemplary way; the candidate currently exhibits the quality at the level of an experienced practitioner.

Proficient—The candidate demonstrates solid understanding and use of the quality; the candidate exhibits the quality at a level that suggested future success in applying the quality as an independent teacher.

Developing—The candidate demonstrates an evolving acquisition of the quality; the candidate exhibits the quality at the level of a novice who shows promise for future performance.

Basic—The candidate demonstrates fundamental knowledge of the quality, but lacks skill in implementation; the candidate exhibits the quality at the level of a novice who may be able to develop proficiency.

Unsatisfactory—The candidate demonstrates a lack of awareness or understanding of the quality; the candidate’s current knowledge, behaviors, and dispositions suggest he/she may fail to develop to the degree required.
