► FATHER KNOWS BEST: Dad's Day 2011

Dear Dads and Families,

Welcome to CAC Dad's Day Weekend. We hope you've found yourself experiencing a taste of what college life looks like on our beautiful campus.

From the Dad's Night at O'Connell's, to the OU vs. Texas A&M Watch Party, to the Sunday Brunch, we had one goal in mind when creating this weekend - honoring you as the great dad or family member your student looks up to. We want you to experience, see, and taste what the University of Oklahoma has to offer and we hope you will leave a fan of the place your student will call their alma mater.

After losing my dad in May of this year I've been able to reflect on some of my favorite memories. Many of them revolve around practical jokes, or significant family events. However, my very favorite memories were simply spending time doing things we both enjoyed.

This weekend, we invite you to soak up the opportunity Dad's Day provides. Experience campus, eat from Norman's favorite restaurants, get a taste of college life and be honored for being a great dad or family member. In the midst of these things, it is our hope that you will get quality time with your student in some of the best years of their life.

I look forward to meeting each of you at the Dad's Day events. I hope you enjoy the fun and the rich tradition surrounding you. We want you to feel appreciated for everything you do, as this weekend is for you!

On behalf of the University of Oklahoma and the CAC Dad's Day Executive Team, enjoy your weekend and Boomer Sooner!
