Program Student Learning Outcomes

College: Arts & Science
Program: Psychology, MS

Upon completion of the M.S. in Psychology, students should be able to:

- Track a research question or scholarly project from its basis in existing literature to the formulation of a testable hypothesis and its representation in a research design.

- Conduct a literature review independently on a research topic of their own choosing.