Professor Greg Weiner's research and teaching lie at the intersection of political theory and the U.S. Constitution. A former national political consultant for Senator Bob Kerrey, Weiner's specialties include American political thought, civil liberties, constitutional law, and majority rule.

He teaches political science at Assumption College in Massachusetts, and has also taught at Brown University, Georgetown University, and Johns Hopkins University.

He is the author of Madison's Metronome: The Constitution, Majority Rule and the Tempo of American Politics (University Press of Kansas, 2012). He is currently writing The Political Thought of Daniel Patrick Moynihan for publication in 2015.

In our coffee klatch, Professor Weiner will be answering questions about these and other topics of interest. You are welcome to bring a friend to this event.

Professor Weiner will also present a public lecture at 7:30 p.m. in the Associates/Regents Room, Oklahoma Memorial Union, 900 Asp Avenue.
