National Partnership
The N.E.W. Leadership National Network is an initiative of the Center for American Women in Politics/Eagleton Institute of Politics at Rutgers University. The Women’s Leadership Initiative is a non-partisan program that seeks to address the underrepresentation of women in politics, public service, and other leadership roles by educating, inspiring, and empowering women to become political leaders.

Since 2002, women from universities across Oklahoma have attended N.E.W. Leadership. N.E.W. Leadership is a five-day intense residential program at the University of Oklahoma designed to increase young women’s involvement in public service. The institute includes hands-on projects, skill-building workshops, keynote speakers and panels featuring prominent female officeholders, public administrators, community advocates, and business leaders. N.E.W. Leadership includes networking opportunities with women leaders and culminates in a day spent with elected officials at the Oklahoma State Capitol. A special feature of the program is the involvement of three Faculty-in-Residence (FIRs) who live on campus, participate in the activities, and serve as mentors to the students. Past FIRs have included elected officials, tribal legislators, nonprofit leaders, political activists, and educators.

N.E.W. Leadership has been honored each year since 2002 by The Journal Record as a Program Making a Difference at its annual “Woman of the Year” celebration.

Support N.E.W. Leadership
N.E.W. Leadership is dependent on individual donors, grants, and corporate sponsorships. To learn how to support a scholarship, please contact Lorna Vazquez at (405) 325-6372 or lorna_vazquez@ou.edu. To make a tax-deductible donation, please visit www.ou.edu/wli or mail a check payable to the “OU Foundation” to:

N.E.W. Leadership
The Carl Albert Center
University of Oklahoma
630 Parrington Oval, Room 101
Norman, OK 73019

Educating, Inspiring, Empowering Oklahoma Women

N.E.W. Leadership 2016 Institute

Who Should Apply?
- Undergraduate women enrolled in any Oklahoma college or university for 2015-2016.
- OK residents attending out-of-state schools.
- All majors are welcome.
- Non-traditional students are encouraged to apply.

Approximately 35 undergraduates representing a variety of universities, majors, class years, ethnicities, geographic locations, economic, and personal backgrounds will be selected to participate. The institute is free to accepted students and they must attend all five days.

Apply Online
www.ou.edu/wli

Since 2002, women from universities across Oklahoma have attended N.E.W. Leadership. N.E.W. Leadership is a five-day intense residential program at the University of Oklahoma designed to increase young women’s involvement in public service. The institute includes hands on projects, skill-building workshops, keynote speakers and panels featuring prominent female officeholders, public administrators, community advocates, and business leaders.

N.E.W. Leadership includes networking opportunities with women leaders and culminates in a day spent with elected officials at the Oklahoma State Capitol.

A special feature of the program is the involvement of three Faculty-in-Residence (FIRs) who live on campus, participate in the activities, and serve as mentors to the students. Past FIRs have included elected officials, tribal legislators, nonprofit leaders, political activists, and educators.

N.E.W. Leadership has been honored each year since 2002 by The Journal Record as a Program Making a Difference at its annual “Woman of the Year” celebration.

Who Should Apply?
- Undergraduate women enrolled in any Oklahoma college or university for 2015-2016.
- OK residents attending out-of-state schools.
- All majors are welcome.
- Non-traditional students are encouraged to apply.

Approximately 35 undergraduates representing a variety of universities, majors, class years, ethnicities, geographic locations, economic, and personal backgrounds will be selected to participate. The institute is free to accepted students and they must attend all five days.

Apply Online
www.ou.edu/wli

Support N.E.W. Leadership
N.E.W. Leadership is dependent on individual donors, grants, and corporate sponsorships. To learn how to support a scholarship, please contact Lorna Vazquez at (405) 325-6372 or lorna_vazquez@ou.edu. To make a tax-deductible donation, please visit www.ou.edu/wli or mail a check payable to the “OU Foundation” to:

N.E.W. Leadership
The Carl Albert Center
University of Oklahoma
630 Parrington Oval, Room 101
Norman, OK 73019

Educating, Inspiring, Empowering Oklahoma Women

N.E.W. Leadership 2016 Institute

Who Should Apply?
- Undergraduate women enrolled in any Oklahoma college or university for 2015-2016.
- OK residents attending out-of-state schools.
- All majors are welcome.
- Non-traditional students are encouraged to apply.

Approximately 35 undergraduates representing a variety of universities, majors, class years, ethnicities, geographic locations, economic, and personal backgrounds will be selected to participate. The institute is free to accepted students and they must attend all five days.

Apply Online
www.ou.edu/wli

Since 2002, women from universities across Oklahoma have attended N.E.W. Leadership. N.E.W. Leadership is a five-day intense residential program at the University of Oklahoma designed to increase young women’s involvement in public service. The institute includes hands on projects, skill-building workshops, keynote speakers and panels featuring prominent female officeholders, public administrators, community advocates, and business leaders.

N.E.W. Leadership includes networking opportunities with women leaders and culminates in a day spent with elected officials at the Oklahoma State Capitol.

A special feature of the program is the involvement of three Faculty-in-Residence (FIRs) who live on campus, participate in the activities, and serve as mentors to the students. Past FIRs have included elected officials, tribal legislators, nonprofit leaders, political activists, and educators.

N.E.W. Leadership has been honored each year since 2002 by The Journal Record as a Program Making a Difference at its annual “Woman of the Year” celebration.

Who Should Apply?
- Undergraduate women enrolled in any Oklahoma college or university for 2015-2016.
- OK residents attending out-of-state schools.
- All majors are welcome.
- Non-traditional students are encouraged to apply.

Approximately 35 undergraduates representing a variety of universities, majors, class years, ethnicities, geographic locations, economic, and personal backgrounds will be selected to participate. The institute is free to accepted students and they must attend all five days.

Apply Online
www.ou.edu/wli

Support N.E.W. Leadership
N.E.W. Leadership is dependent on individual donors, grants, and corporate sponsorships. To learn how to support a scholarship, please contact Lorna Vazquez at (405) 325-6372 or lorna_vazquez@ou.edu. To make a tax-deductible donation, please visit www.ou.edu/wli or mail a check payable to the “OU Foundation” to:

N.E.W. Leadership
The Carl Albert Center
University of Oklahoma
630 Parrington Oval, Room 101
Norman, OK 73019

Educating, Inspiring, Empowering Oklahoma Women

N.E.W. Leadership 2016 Institute

Who Should Apply?
- Undergraduate women enrolled in any Oklahoma college or university for 2015-2016.
- OK residents attending out-of-state schools.
- All majors are welcome.
- Non-traditional students are encouraged to apply.

Approximately 35 undergraduates representing a variety of universities, majors, class years, ethnicities, geographic locations, economic, and personal backgrounds will be selected to participate. The institute is free to accepted students and they must attend all five days.

Apply Online
www.ou.edu/wli

Since 2002, women from universities across Oklahoma have attended N.E.W. Leadership. N.E.W. Leadership is a five-day intense residential program at the University of Oklahoma designed to increase young women’s involvement in public service. The institute includes hands on projects, skill-building workshops, keynote speakers and panels featuring prominent female officeholders, public administrators, community advocates, and business leaders.

N.E.W. Leadership includes networking opportunities with women leaders and culminates in a day spent with elected officials at the Oklahoma State Capitol.

A special feature of the program is the involvement of three Faculty-in-Residence (FIRs) who live on campus, participate in the activities, and serve as mentors to the students. Past FIRs have included elected officials, tribal legislators, nonprofit leaders, political activists, and educators.

N.E.W. Leadership has been honored each year since 2002 by The Journal Record as a Program Making a Difference at its annual “Woman of the Year” celebration.
Educating, Inspiring, Empowering Oklahoma Women!

N.E.W. Leadership

A Program of the
Women’s Leadership Initiative
The Carl Albert Research and Studies Center
University of Oklahoma

N.E.W. Leadership is a residential program at The University of Oklahoma that gives undergraduate women the knowledge and skills to become effective leaders in public service and elective office.

- Network with successful women leaders
- Develop leadership skills
- Learn how to make change through public service

Who Should Apply?
- Undergraduate women enrolled in any Oklahoma college or university for 2015-2016.
- Oklahoma residents attending out-of-state schools.
- All majors are welcome.
- Non-traditional students are encouraged to apply.

Apply Online:
www.ou.edu/wli
Application Deadline:
Wednesday, March 9, 2016

N.E.W. Leadership is supported by foundations, corporations, and individual donors.
There is no cost to students.

For more information contact:
Lorna Vazquez
Assistant Director, N.E.W. Leadership
(405) 325-6372 or lorna_vazquez@ou.edu

"My experience with NEW Leadership through the Carl Albert Center equipped me with the tools and networks I needed to develop my passion for public service and to carry out what I envision for Oklahoma today. Most importantly, NEW Leadership has propelled me to begin my own journey as a woman leader in Oklahoma.

-Rep. Cyndi Munson
Oklahoma State Legislature
2006 N.E.W. Leadership

"I came into contact with many female lawyers and judges, sparking my interest in the legal field. I graduated from TU’s College of Law in May 2010, and was sworn into the Oklahoma Bar Association.”

-Sarah R. Brown
Tulsa County Municipal Judge
2006 N.E.W. Leadership Participant

"N.E.W. Leadership is invaluable to this state and this country as we continue to try to propel women into leadership roles both in the public and private sector... It is clear that women in this country are making large strides, and this program is a big part of that effort."

-Mary Fallin
Governor, Oklahoma

May 20-24, 2016