Textbooks: These textbooks are available for online access via OU libraries

- Bite-Size Python - An Introduction to Python Programming
Each chapter is released on canvas every week from this textbook
- An Introduction to Python and Computer Programming

The textbook is used only for personal reference. All assignments are custom.

1. Course Policies

Grading: The course letter grade will be assigned based on the overall percentage: 90-100 (A), 80-89 (B), 70-79 (C), 60-69 (D)

Component	Percent
Exams (2 midterms, 1 final)	40 (Each midterm is 10% and final is 20%)
Individual Assignments	50 (Approx. 10 assignments)
Quizzes	10

Exams: Each exam is comprehensive. They will include the analysis, tracing, and writing of programs.

Homework: There will be approximately one homework each week. These will contain questions focused on the theoretical foundations of programming with small snippets of code writing. These are to be turned in to canvas as python files.

Labs: Labs are optional and designed for programming practice and to help with your homework. We understand that Googling is an important aspect of modern programming, although completely copied and pasted projects will be turned into the Academic Misconduct Office. One or two lines accompanied by an explanation and citation are permissible.

Attendance/Participation: Attendance will be tracked by pop quizzes.

Canvas:

This class will use Canvas learning management system for course material and communication. The URL for the home page is <http://canvas.ou.edu>. Log in with your 4+4 using your standard OU password. If you have difficulty logging in, call 325-HELP. This learning management system provides several useful features, including a list of assignments and announcements, an electronic mailing list, and a grade book. All updates to the schedule assignment due dates will be announced in class and posted to this website. You should check the site regularly.

2. University Policies

Masking is welcome on the OU Norman campus. People may choose to mask at any time or for any purpose. In classroom settings, there is no longer a 2-week masking requirement when there is a reported positive case of COVID-19 in the class.

Accommodation: Any student with a disability should contact the instructor so that reasonable accommodation may be provided for that student.

Adjustments for Pregnancy/Childbirth Related Issues: Should you need modifications or adjustments to your course requirements because of documented pregnancy related or childbirth-related issues, please contact me as soon as possible to discuss. Modifications will be made where medically necessary and similar in scope to accommodation based on temporary disability. Please see <http://www.ou.edu/eoo/faqs/pregnancy-faqs.html> for commonly asked questions.

Title IX Resources: For any concerns regarding gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, stalking, or intimate partner violence, the University offers a variety of resources, including advocates on-call 24.7, counseling services, mutual no contact orders, scheduling adjustments and disciplinary sanctions against the perpetrator. Please contact the Sexual Misconduct Office 405-325-2215 (8-5) or the Sexual Assault Response Team 405-615-0013 (24.7) to learn more or to report an incident.
