

THE EU REGULATORY STATE AND THE GLOBAL POLITICAL ECONOMY OF ENERGY

a lecture and lunch with

Andreas Goldthau

Professor in Public Policy, The Central European University

Thursday, September 17, 2015 • Noon

Oklahoma Memorial Union, Regents Room

RSVP to rkmartin@ou.edu by September 14

Andreas Goldthau is Professor and former Head of the Public Policy Department at the Central European University, and Associate with the Geopolitics of Energy Project at Harvard's Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs. He is also a Fellow with the Global Public Policy Institute in Berlin. His academic career includes work with the Paul Nitze School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS); Johns Hopkins University; the RAND Corporation, a research organization that focuses on public policy solutions; the German Institute for International and Security Affairs (SWP); the Elliott School of International Affairs; George Washington University and the Institute for East European Studies at Freie University of Berlin.

This lecture and lunch is part of the "Energy, Climate and Security" Presidential Dream Course. Visit www.ou.edu/dias for more information on all the events affiliated with this course.

The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA
College of International Studies
Department of International and Area Studies

Funding to support IAS 3653.001 "Energy, Climate and Security" as a Presidential Dream Course and these guest lecturers is made possible by the Office of the President. All events are free and open to the public. For accommodations on the basis of disability, please contact International and Area Studies at 405-325-1584.