stratified to massive, typically slightly graded, and noncalcareous or calcareous. Rounded feldspar 2,300 ft (700 m); maximum thickness of lower part approximately 1,300 (400 m) south of Choctaw exposed to the north and west; chert clasts may be Woodford Formation (Devonian); and many black Choctaw fault

OLDER ALLUVIUM (QUATERNARY)--Unconsolidated silt, sand, and gravel above present level of where conceal

Holland and Barnes 1 McCoy, Spud 12/14/52, TD 850'

Status unknown as of January 1, 1988