Assignments, Grading and Due Dates:

Pre-class Readings:
Students are expected to have read the assigned readings before each class period and come to class prepared for discussion. As this is a graduate course, students are expected to actively participate in discussion and leading conversations.

Class Participation/Attendance -20%
Students are expected to attend class and participate in a thoughtful and meaningful manner. The quality of each student’s comments and preparedness will be considered for this portion of the grade.

UN Relevant Topic Conversation Presentation - 20%
On Tuesday night (the first night of class), students will be assigned one of four relevant UN topic conversations. These conversations will cover current events related to the UN and the international community. Student’s role will be to lead the conversation for an hour covering the assigned topic. Current topics that could be considered are the following: Iran and Nuclear Sanctions, Women’s Rights and Education, The Situation in Yemen, The Situation in Syria and Boko Haram and Nigeria. This list is not exhaustive but should give you an idea concerning the topics that may be included.

Policy Analysis/Security Council Simulation Participation - 20%
Students will participate in a policy analysis and discussion formatted to reflect Security Council interactions and processes. The materials that will be used for this portion of the course will be provided on D2L prior to the course commencing. You will be required to turn in a 3 to 4 page writing piece associated with this topic on the final day of class.

Course Final (In Class) - 40%
An in class final will be administered Sunday afternoon. During the previous class meetings, certain topics will be communicated to students that will be part of their final examination. The exam will only cover topics discussed in class or in the readings.

Grading:
This is a letter-graded course: A, B, C, D, or F. Percentage of grade will be determined by the assignments listed above

Notice: Failure to meet assignment due dates could result in a grade of I (Incomplete) and may adversely impact Tuition Assistance and/or Financial Aid.
POLICIES AND NOTICES

Attendance/Grade Policy

Attendance and participation in interaction, individual assignments, group exercises, simulations, role playing, etc. are valuable aspects of any course because much of the learning comes from discussions in class with other students. It is expected that you attend all classes and be on time except for excused emergencies.

Excused absences are given for professor mandated activities or legally required activities such as emergencies or military assignments. It is the policy of the University to excuse absences of students that result from religious observances and to provide without penalty for the rescheduling of examinations and additional required class work that may fall on religious holidays. Unavoidable personal emergencies, including (but not limited to) serious illness; delays in getting to class because of accidents, etc.; deaths and funerals, and hazardous road conditions will be excused.

If you are obtaining financial assistance (TA, STAP, FA, VA, Scholarship, etc.) to pay all or part of your tuition cost, you must follow your funding agency/institution’s policy regarding “I” (Incomplete) grades unless the timeline is longer than what the University policy allows then you must adhere to the University policy. Students who receive Financial Aid must resolve/complete any “I” (Incomplete) grades by the end of the term or he/she may be placed on “financial aid probation.” If the “I” grade is not resolved/completed by the end of the following term, the student’s Financial Aid may be suspended make the student ineligible for further Financial Aid.

Students are responsible for meeting the guidelines of Tuition Assistance and Veterans Assistance. See the education counselor at your local education center for a complete description of your TA or VA requirements.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Academic integrity means honesty and responsibility in scholarship. Academic assignments exist to help students learn; grades exist to show how fully this goal is attained. Therefore all work and all grades should result from the student's own understanding and effort.

Academic misconduct is any act which improperly affects the evaluation of a student’s academic performance or achievement. Misconduct occurs when the student either knows or reasonably should know that the act constitutes misconduct. Academic misconduct includes: cheating and using unauthorized materials on examinations and other assignments; improper collaboration, submitting the same assignment for different classes (self-plagiarism); fabrication, forgery, alteration of documents, lying, etc…in order to obtain an academic advantage; assisting others in academic misconduct; attempting to commit academic misconduct; destruction of property, hacking, etc…; intimidation and interference with integrity process; and plagiarism. All students should review the Student’s Guide to Academic Integrity at http://integrity.ou.edu/students_guide.html

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. All students should review policies regarding student conduct at http://studentconduct.ou.edu/
