What is this notice?
In compliance with federal law, these alerts are released by the University of Oklahoma Police Department when certain crimes are reported on or near University property and may present an ongoing safety concern to OU community members. These timely warnings provide information about campus safety situations, allow community members to take precautions for personal safety, and serve to dispel misinformation. They do not present, nor are they intended to present, a complete picture of crime on campus. Timely Warning notices are maintained on the OUPD website for a period of two weeks.
