Still working to improve your study strategies? Need help preparing for finals? Let UC Action's nationally certified tutoring program help you continue to achieve success.

All UC action programs are free. Our weekly tutoring study sessions are drop-in and led by faculty and/or peer learning assistants (undergraduate tutors). Our weekly schedule is posted and updated online. If our weekly schedule doesn't fit your needs, try scheduling an action appointment study session with a peer learning assistant. Up to 6 students can schedule for any scheduled action appointment. There are 3 ways to book an action appointment.

1. Online <http://tutor.ou.edu>
2. In person at a Student Learning Center office
Wagner Hall, room 245
Adams Center Residence Halls, Muldrow Tower 105
3. Calling our Wagner office at 405.325.7621

Bring your questions and our team will help you discover the answers. UC Action aims to help every student learn to study smarter, not harder!

Attention Health Majors!

As you are aware it's very important to have a parallel degree plan in place while pursuing a career in a Health Sciences related field.

University College's Center for Major & Career Exploration is hosting an event just for you!

Please plan to attend the Parallel Planning for Health Majors Workshop on Monday, April 17th from 12:00 -1:00 PM in Wagner Hall Room 235.
