

Spring BioBlitz! OK

Get a hummingbird feeder ready

Look under leaves for snails and slugs

Find a yellow flower

Watch animals far away

Look at something close up

Find a beetle

Go for a nature walk

Listen to coyotes howl

Smell the spring flowers

Find a nut from a tree

Watch a bird gather nest material

Look for tracks in the damp earth

Sleep outside

Watch squirrels hunt for buried nuts

Find a flowering tree

Go to a quiet place and listen to nature

Find a blue flower

Look for frog eggs in water

Find the first flower in your neighborhood

Look out over the landscape from a high hill

Draw a spring plant or animal

Look for fish in a pond, lake, or creek

Find a munching caterpillar

Listen for baby birds

Look for conifer cones

Spot a fox or coyote

Explore a new place

Find the first tree with big leaves

Watch bees collect pollen

Listen for an owl at night

Start a garden

Watch a spring storm

Watch deer browse on new leaves

Help a turtle cross the road

Look for lichens on a tree trunk

Write a poem about spring

Look at the new leaves of a tree

Count the ants busy on their ant hill

Plant flower seeds for pollinators

Sit in the woods

Go to your local pond to look for ducks

Search for a 4 leaf clover

Take a night-time walk

Find a giant mushroom

Watch for a rabbit early in the morning