

Nathaniel Reeves III

University of Oklahoma Department of Political Science
Carl Albert Congressional Research and Studies Center
nathaniel.reeves@ou.edu • (405) 325-6372

EDUCATION

---

University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma
Ph.D., Political Science, August 2024 – Present
Fields: American Politics, Methodology, Public Administration

Arkansas State University
M.A., Political Science, May 2024

Cameron University
B.A., Political Science, May 2021

RESEARCH

---

Blum Rachel, McLaughlin Peter, and Reeves, Nathaniel
“The Endorsement Effect: What Happens When Members of Congress Get Involved in Presidential Primaries?” (Working Paper)

Barron Nathan T., Blum Rachel M. Crespin Michael H., Finocchiaro Charles J., McLaughlin
Peter T., Olson Peter, Reeves Nathaniel, and Rhodes Joy
“Partisan Signals, Procedural Opinions: Elite Cues and Public Support for Filibuster Reform”
(Working Paper)

Butcher, Jordan and Reeves, Nathaniel “Can’t Get No Satisfaction: Uncovering the Partisan Dynamics of Term Limit Shifts” (Working Paper)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

---

University of Oklahoma,
Graduate Teaching Assistant, August 2024, May 2026
• American Federal Government

RESEARCH INTERESTS

---

Congressional Behavior
Elite Political Communication
Presidential Primaries

State Legislatures
Term Limits

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

---

2025: American Political Science Association Annual Meeting

Poster: "Partisan Signals, Procedural Opinions: Elite Cues and Public Support for Filibuster Reform"