

Educating, Inspiring and Empowering Oklahoma Women!

N.E.W. Leadership 2022

A program of the Women's Leadership Programs
The Carl Albert Congressional Research and Studies Center

N.E.W. Leadership is a residential program at the University of Oklahoma that gives undergraduate women the knowledge and skills to become effective leaders in public service and elective office.

- Network with successful women leaders
- Develop leadership skills
- Learn how to make change through public service

"N.E.W. Leadership lit a fire inside me that has still not been extinguished. To be able to see and meet such powerful and encouraging women was so empowering. I felt more confident in myself and my role as a woman in public service. There's no better program for young women considering public service or office."

-Rachael Sourjohn
Mvskoke Nation Youth Services
N.E.W. Class of 2013

May 20-24, 2022

Who Should Apply?

- Undergraduate women enrolled in any Oklahoma college or university for 2021-2022
- Oklahoma residents attending out-of-state institutions
- All majors are welcome
- Non-traditional students
- womxn, non-binary, and trans students of all gender identities

Apply Online:
www.ou.edu/wlp

Application Deadline:
Wednesday, March 23, 2022

N.E.W. Leadership is supported by foundations, corporations, educational partners and individual donors. There is no cost to students.

For more information contact:
(405) 325-4934 or
womensleadership@ou.edu

"My experience with N.E.W. Leadership equipped me with the tools and networks I needed to develop my passion for public service and to carry out what I envision for Oklahoma today. Most importantly, N.E.W. Leadership has propelled me to begin my own journey as a woman leader in Oklahoma.

-Rep. Cyndi Munson
Oklahoma State Legislature
N.E.W. Class of 2006

"I found my first job in politics due to relationships I made at N.E.W. Leadership. It dramatically altered the course of my life, as I was headed to law school, and it is remarkable to look back and see how a few days can be so powerful."

-Jenna Worthen
Founder and CEO, James Martin Company
N.E.W. Class of 2008