PRACTICUM FORMAT OPTIONS

effective Summer 2025

Practicum is the cornerstone of social work education, allowing students to apply classroom learning in an on-site setting at local community-based practicum sites. All MSW students are required to complete two (2) practicum experiences as part of their degree requirements, totaling 900 hours. The first practicum (Foundation Year practicum – 400 hours) takes place within the first 30 credit hours of your Foundation Year. The second practicum (Concentration Year practicum – 500 hours) occurs during the second 30 credit hours of your Concentration Year. There are different practicum formats for both Foundation Year and Concentration Year experiences. Details and requirements are listed below. Note: Practicum hours are dependent on the practicum site and typically occur during traditional business working hours. Contact the Field Office if you have any questions: limahoney@ou.edu.
