

DODGE FAMILY COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
CLARA LUPER DEPARTMENT OF AFRICAN AND AFRICAN-AMERICAN STUDIES
The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA

OU AFAM WELCOMES DR. IFE WILLIAMS

Thursday, September 28, 2023

Bizzell Memorial Library,
Room LL118

1:30 p.m.-2:45 p.m.

Dr. Ife Williams is a Political Science and Africana History Professor at Delaware County Community College in Pennsylvania. Her manuscript, Police Brutality: A Philadelphia Story (2023) tells a centuries-long history of policing in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania through the 1980s. Dr. Williams is the recipient of a 2022 "Mellon/ACLS Community College Faculty Fellowship" for her immense digital humanities project mapping slave revolts and resistance against enslavement across the African Diaspora over a 200-year period. Dr. Williams is the past President of the African Heritage Studies Association (2018-2021), and a Fulbright scholar who has represented the United States in Tanzania and Barbados.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
EMAIL: NESHA.S.WILLIAMS-1@OU.EDU
PHONE: 405-325-2327

www.ou.edu/cas/afam