

THE LISTENING PROJECT

The Space Program

Listening as an act of creativity and freedom

Stevie “Dr. View” Johnson is the CEO of The Space Program (TSP), a hybrid record label and non-profit organization collective of artists, entrepreneurs, activists and scholars, that creatively disrupts systems of oppression through the creation and production of Hip-Hop music.

Dr. Johnson will talk about how he, along his collaborators, used artifacts and discussions to produced the album Curriculum of the Mind that addresses the experience of black men at historically white colleges. The work was part of his dissertation.

October 21st, 1:30 p.m.
Gaylord Auditorium

The Listening Project is a Presidential Dream Course and financially supported by the Office of the President. All speaker events are free and open to the public.
