The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA

OU is the state’s No. 1 university, according to U.S. News & World Report’s 2024 Best Colleges list. Among all public universities in the region, OU placed in the Top 5.

3rd HIGHEST in graduate salaries after five years among SEC and Big 12 schools with an average starting salary of $62,841

HIGHEST RANKED business, engineering, and law schools in Oklahoma

#1 AVIATION PROGRAM

TOP 5 INDUSTRIES for OU graduates: Health Care, Manufacturing, Oil & Gas, K-12 Education, and Internet & Software

30,000+ ENROLLED STUDENTS

Students from across the world representing

50 STATES
76 OKLAHOMA COUNTIES
125+ COUNTRIES

1,446 RESEARCH AWARDS TOTALING $386M in FY23

#1 RESEARCH UNIVERSITY in Oklahoma

80% of Oklahoma’s HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONALS are trained by OU

ONLY NCI-DESIGNATED CANCER CENTER in Oklahoma

OU Health is OKLAHOMA’S FIRST comprehensive academic health system that:
- trains the state’s health professionals
- conducts innovative medical research
- delivers health care to Oklahomans

THE OU IMPACT

Collectively, the OU System is a $2.1 billion enterprise that represents one of the greatest assets of the state of Oklahoma.