Section C—Family Members joining j-1

Spouse and children applying for visas after the principal exchange visitor has already traveled to the United States must present the following: form DS-2019, approved by the sponsor; proof the principal applicant is maintaining his/her J visa status; copy of the J-1's visa; proof of relationship to the exchange visitor; and proof of sufficient money to cover all expenses in the United States. Spouses and children of the exchange visitor may not enter the United States before the primary exchange visitor enters for the first time. Please visit http://travel.state.gov/visa/temp/types/types\_1267.html for more information.

Section D—insurance agreement

The exchange visitor acknowledges that all dependents must carry medical, repatriation, and medical evacuation insurance while residing in the United States. Willful failure on the part of the participant and/or any J-2 dependents to maintain active insurance is grounds for termination of the program.
