

The Mark Allen Everett
POETRY SERIES
at The University of Oklahoma

POETRY READING

Thursday, March 15 • 7PM • MAINSITE Contemporary Art

ALAN MICHAEL PARKER

Alan Michael Parker has written four novels and is the author of eight collections of poems, most recently The Ladder (2016), for which he received the Brockman-Campbell Award from the North Carolina Poetry Society. He served as coeditor of The Manifesto Project (with Rebecca Hazelton), Editor of The Imaginary Poets, and coeditor of three other volumes. His poems have appeared in The American Poetry Review, The Gettysburg Review, Kenyon Review, The New Republic, The New Yorker, Paris Review, Pleiades, and The Yale Review, among other magazines, and twice in The Best American Poetry annual. Parker has received three Pushcart prizes. Since 1998, Alan Michael Parker has taught at Davidson College. He lives in Davidson, NC with his wife, the artist Felicia van Bork.