

A POETRY READING WITH

BOJAN LOUIS

BOJAN LOUIS (Diné) is a poet, fiction writer, essayist, and clinical assistant professor. His first poetry collection Currents (BkMk Press 2017) received a 2018 American Book Award. He is the inaugural Virginia G. Piper Fellow-in-Residence at Arizona State University and former poetry editor at RED INK and former poetry editor and co-founder of Waxwing.

Join us for this event in the Language Lives Series, which highlights indigenous lives and languages

THURSDAY, APRIL 25 - OPEN MIC AT 6PM - READING AT 7:30 PM
THE JACOBSON HOUSE - 609 CHAUTAUQUA AVE.

The Mark Allen Everett

POETRY SERIES

at The University of Oklahoma