Ilya Kaminsky was born in Odessa, former Soviet Union in 1977, and arrived in the United States in 1993, when his family was granted asylum by the American government. He is the author of Deaf Republic (Graywolf Press) and Dancing In Odessa (Tupelo Press). He has also co-edited and co-translated many other books. His awards include the Guggenheim Fellowship, the American Academy of Arts and Letters' Metcalf Award, and the NEA Fellowship. His poems regularly appear in Best American Poetry and Pushcart Prize anthologies and have been translated into over twenty languages. Kaminsky has worked as a law clerk for San Francisco Legal Aid and the National Immigration Law Center. He currently works as the Court Appointed Special Advocate for Orphaned Children in Southern California and holds the Bourne Chair in Poetry at Georgia Institute of Technology.
