

THE MARK ALLEN EVERETT
POETRY SERIES PRESENTS

7.29.20

a virtual poetry reading with
MAUREEN OEHLER DURANT

Maureen earned an MFA in Creative Writing with her patient husband's GI Bill at Queens University of Charlotte and her poetry has appeared in Crosstimbers, Red River Review, Westview, and The Great American Wise Ass Poetry Anthology. She is the co-author of Postcard History Series: West Point, published by Arcadia Press (2007) and Skirmishes on the Okie-Irish Border (2020). She currently serves as the country's loudest librarian at Lawton High School and teaches at Cameron University.

Wednesday, July 29

6:30 p.m. CST: open mic

7:00 p.m. CST: reading to follow

Navigate to the MAEPS Facebook page to locate online event details and sign up!

The Mark Allen Everett
POETRY SERIES
of The University of Oklahoma