

THE MARK ALLEN EVERETT
POETRY SERIES PRESENTS
A POETRY READING WITH

KYLE SCHLESINGER

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10
7PM

OU MEMORIAL UNION, ASSOCIATES ROOM

Kyle Schlesinger was born in Providence in 1976. He studied poetry and pedagogy at Goddard College, and went on to study poetics with Robert Creeley at the University at Buffalo, where he earned his doctorate in 2005. The author of over twenty books of poetry and criticism, Schlesinger currently lives in Austin, where he runs Cuneiform Press and directs the Graduate Program in Publishing at UHV. Recent collaborations include a meditation on George Oppen's Of Being Numerous entitled Mantle (Atticus Finch, 2005) with Thom Donovan and a book about stencil graffiti entitled Schablone Berlin (Chax, 2005) with Caroline Koebel. Recent artists' books include Moonlighting and A Book of Closings. He is currently writing on Piero Heliczer, Asa Benveniste and the history and ontology of book burning.