

PAUL AUSTIN

Paul Austin's decades-long career has involved acting and directorial work On and Off Broadway, Off-Off Broadway, at summer stock, and at regional theatres around the nation. He has acted for television and film and was for many years the Artistic Director of the Image Theatre in New York, where he produced plays and taught acting. He was recently awarded the Teachers Who Make a Difference award from the Creative Coalition at the Sundance Film Festival. Mr. Austin's writing is often collaborative in nature: his collection Conspiracies was performed with a jazz ensemble at New York's Ensemble Studio. He is currently working on three collections: Actors; Mother and Son; and Persons of Influence.

---

POETRY READING

---

MAINSITE CONTEMPORARY ART

Wednesday, November 15
7:00 P.M.

