

Bennett S Hall

Sugar Land, TX • 713-591-2567 • Bennett_Hall@ou.edu

Objective

Acquire an internship studying real world problems and applications to build on my formal education with professional industry experience

Education

University of Oklahoma – Norman, OK

Bachelor of Science in Petroleum Engineering

Minor in Spanish

Minor in Geology

GPA: 3.81/4.00

May 2021

Experience

Drilling Engineer Intern

Chaparral Energy | Oklahoma City, OK

June 3, 2019- August 9, 2019

- BHA analysis project focused on drilling efficiency to reduce drilling cost and improve single well economics
- Internship project culminated in formal presentation of findings to CEO and operations group
- Experience in corporate environment
- Various field experiences and shop tours

Shell Petroleum Engineering Camp

Royal Dutch Shell | Robert, LA

January 6-11, 2019

- Selected to attend camp at Robert Training Center
- Exposure to various aspects of Shell's offshore activities and training

Lab Assistant

October 2018- Present

Mewbourne School of Petroleum and Geological Engineering | Norman, OK

- Prepare rock samples and testing equipment for petrophysical analysis
- Assist graduate students in testing

Honors & Activities

- Society of Petroleum Engineers, New Student Liaison Fall 2017 - Present
- Honors College Member Spring 2018 - Present
- Delta Tau Delta Fraternity, Sergeant at Arms Fall 2017 - Present
- Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society, Member Fall 2017 - Present
- Soonerthon, Volunteer Fall 2017 - Present
- Big Event, Volunteer Fall 2017 - Present

Skills

- Experienced in WellView, Moblize, and Totco
- Fluent in Spanish conversation and composition
- Proficient in Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, Excel as well as Autodesk Inventor
- Excellent oral and written communication skills, including public speaking
- Strong self-motivation and works well with limited supervision
- Ability to prioritize, delegate, and motivate as part of a team