

ENERGY EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

Enable the next generation of energy executives.

All in one week.

Empower your employees with OU's Energy Executive Management Program, designed for energy professionals and emerging executives to take the next step in their career.

Ideal candidates

- Energy industry professionals
- High-potential leaders with 5 or more years of experience
- Technical employees looking for a business foundation

Outcomes

- Strengthens employees' business acumen, leadership skills and understanding of the management process
- Fast-tracks the development of high-potential managers
- Prepares candidates for advancement into senior management positions
- Exposes employees to exchange of new ideas utilizing current concepts and best practices with University of Oklahoma's world-class faculty and energy industry experts

Registration

Deadline: Sept. 5, 2023 | Program Dates: Sept. 18–22, 2023

Where: Gene Rainbolt Graduate School of Business

Cost: $7,065 per person, discounts available

Topics include

- Global Perspectives in Energy
- Energy Utility Fundamentals
- Basics of Wind, Solar and Storage
- Energy Value Chain and Commodity Pricing
- Legal Issues in Energy
- Valuation of Energy Assets
- Mergers and Acquisition
- Energy Systems
- Financing Energy Projects
- Risk Management and Hedging
- Managers vs. Leaders

PRICE COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
ENERGY INSTITUTE
The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA

HOSTED BY MICHAEL F. PRICE COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
ENERGY INSTITUTE AND EXECUTIVE EDUCATION PROGRAMS
price.ou.edu/eemp aclinton@ou.edu (405) 325-4687