

The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA®
Office of the Senior Vice President and Provost

MEMORANDUM

TO: Directors and Chairs – Norman Campus

FROM: André-Denis Wright
Senior Vice President and Provost

DATE: November 9, 2023

SUBJECT: Doctoral Dissertation Prize

To recognize and reward outstanding performance by graduate students, the Office of the Provost initiated two annual awards--the Doctoral Dissertation Prize and the Graduate Teaching Assistant Award--in Spring 1990.

I now seek your assistance in soliciting nominations for the 2023 Doctoral Dissertation Prizes. There will be one prize in each of the following three academic areas.

1. Science and Engineering
2. Social Sciences, Education, and the Professions
3. Humanities and Fine Arts

Please notify faculty in your units about these awards and submit your nominations by January 27, 2024. An electronic form for nominations is available on the Graduate College website. Direct questions to Will O'Donnell (willodonnell03@ou.edu). Final selection of the 2023 recipients by the committee is due to the Provost's Office in April so that the award winners can be recognized at ceremonies held at the end of the spring semester.

Thank you for your assistance in recognizing our outstanding graduate students.

2023
DOCTORAL DISSERTATION PRIZE NOMINATION

University of Oklahoma
Norman Campus

ELIGIBILITY: Any student receiving a doctoral degree in a Norman-based program during the 2023 calendar year (spring/summer/fall) is eligible. One prize can be given in each of the following three academic areas:

1. Science and Engineering
2. Social Sciences, Education, and the Professions
3. Humanities and Fine Arts

PRIZE: Each prize consists of $1,000 and an inscribed certificate. Prizes will be awarded at a public occasion where both the recipients and the departments will be honored.

NOMINATION PROCEDURES: Departments with fewer than 10 doctoral degrees awarded during the calendar year of the prize can make one nomination; departments with 10 or more can nominate two. Nomination materials should include:

1. At least one letter of nomination, written for the non-specialist, which describes the quality, scholarly contributions, and disciplinary significance of the dissertation.
2. A letter of endorsement from the department chairperson.
3. The dissertation abstract.
4. The applicant's curriculum vitae.
5. One copy of the dissertation.
6. The names of two potential readers for the dissertation. These readers must be OU faculty members in Norman-based programs who are not members of the nominee's department or committee.

Nomination materials will be uploaded to an electronic form available in December on the Graduate College website. The deadline is January 27, 2024. Direct questions to Will O'Donnell (willodonnell03@ou.edu).

SELECTION PROCEDURES: The Graduate Dean will constitute an ad hoc faculty committee charged with recommending to the Provost whether or not a nominated dissertation should be considered for a prize. The committee will be chaired by a member of the Graduate Council; the remaining membership will depend on the fields represented by the dissertations to be considered. The committee will use the submitted materials to assess the overall quality of the dissertation and its contribution to the discipline. The committee shall forward the recommendations to the Provost by April 2024.
