“ I fell in love with OU when I realized that everyone has a different background yet we all come together as one big family. I have never felt alone during my journey here and I think that's because everyone deeply cares about each other, just like a real family. Being surrounded by so many great thinkers and doers inspires me to make myself better. The OU family isn't just for four or five years; it's for a lifetime!”

– Kelsey Brockett from Dallas, TX, OU Class of 2017

ALUM PROFILE

RORY VICTOR

OU Class of 2007, 2008

Major: Civil Engineering

Experience at OU: The University faculty and staff had a personal investment in my life success. During my freshman year, my mentor, a University Academic Director, helped me resolve a financial situation and found me a work-study program. This led to the eventual accomplishment of graduation based on the fact that he cared and took ownership in my success. This along with participating in Homecoming, undergraduate research and Saturday game days, among others, are some of the experiences that accounted for the most memorable five years of my life.

Now: Due in part to the Career Services department and the cutting edge programs of the College of Engineering, I work for ExxonMobil Development Company as a Project Engineer. With this company, I have been granted the opportunities to live and work in Dubai, UAE; Aktau, Kazakhstan; Luanda, Angola and many other places.

Why OU: One of the most frequent things you will hear about OU is the family-oriented culture with a national acclaimed history on a campus of 20,000+ students. The experience of a big campus feel with an environment that serves the students in the intimate manner it deserves is the best way to describe it. This fact made the difference for me and I'm sure many other students can attest to this as well. Live On University!

OKLAHOMA CITY

While OU students love Norman (frequently named one of the best college towns in America), they also enjoy access to Oklahoma City, which offers plenty of shopping, dining and entertainment options, including our Bricktown river canal, the Myriad Botanical Gardens, Civic Center Music Hall, NBA Thunder basketball, and more. For adventure-seekers and outdoorsy types, we have the Boathouse District along the Oklahoma River. This is the official U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Training Site for rowing and canoe/kayak, and guests are invited to kayak, dragon boat, stand-up paddle board, and more. You can also take advantage of the 80-foot-tall SandRidge Sky Trail, which is the tallest adventure course of its kind in the world and features a zip line, the tallest slide in America, and a free-fall base jump experience, among others. And many of our students move to Oklahoma City after graduation. In 2015, USA Today named OKC one of the best U.S. cities for millennial college students. Learn more at visitokc.com.
