INTRODUCTION

The Division of Student Affairs is responsible for enhancing students’ academic success by developing student skills, cultivating diverse, campus life experiences and enriching the University community through programs and services.

Student Affairs supports and encourages students to gather and form community and collaboration through Registered Student Organizations (RSOs). Students who join student organizations feel more connected to their peers, campus, and university as well as more knowledgeable of available campus resources. Therefore, members of RSOs are more likely to graduate and report higher levels of satisfaction with their college experience. Through being involved in RSOs, students receive a multitude of skills and experiences ranging from leadership opportunities to social, intellectual, and cultural development.

GOVERNING POLICIES & PRINCIPLES

All RSOs are responsible for understanding and adhering to the following:

- Local, state, and federal laws
- Policies and procedures of the University of Oklahoma (including, but not limited to:)
  - Student Rights and Responsibilities Code and Procedures
  - Equal Opportunity Statements, Policies, and Procedures
    - Exemptions may be requested on the basis of religion or qualified social organizations through the annual registration process.
  - Sexual Misconduct, Discrimination, and Harassment Policy
  - Alcohol Policy (including the Three Strikes Policy)
  - RSO Constitution
    - RSOs will be provided their organization’s constitution.
    - Each organization may add their own specific structure and guiding principles to the provided constitution; however, the provided constitution’s text may not be amended.
  - Student Government Association (SGA) Policies and Procedures
    - Funding Application Process
    - Space Allocation Application Process
  - Other Policies
    - Co-Curricular Involvement Policy
    - Facility Use Policy
    - Risk Management Policy
    - Student Activities Policy
    - Student Travel Policy
    - Tailgating Policy
    - Temporary Outdoor Signage Policy

Failure to adhere to this policy and / or the guidelines within, may result in rescinded recognition and / or Student Conduct charges.

  - OU Cousins
  - President’s Community Scholars (PCS)
  - President’s Leadership Class (PLC)

Governmental
- The official student government of the University of Oklahoma is the University of Oklahoma Student Government Association (SGA). It serves and advocates on behalf of the student body to improve the student experience.

- Student organizations may not apply to be a Government organization or a branch thereof. However, individuals may run for an elected position within the SGA. Annual registration is not required.

- SGA Branches:
  - Executive Branch: General Council (GC)
  - Judicial Branch: Superior Court
  - Legislative Branches: Graduate Student Senate (GSS), Student Bar Association (SBA), Undergraduate Student Congress (Congress)
  - Programming Branch: Campus Activities Council (CAC)

REGISTERED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS (RSO)

All student organizations approved through the annual registration process will be considered a “Registered Student Organization” or an “RSO” at The University of Oklahoma. An RSO is a student-created organization based on interest and / or advocacy and must allow all eligible OU students to join and participate in the RSO under the University’s Non-Discrimination Policy (exemptions may be requested on the basis of religion or qualified social organizations through the registration process).

Recognition as an RSO allows students to apply for and / or request the following benefits: SGA Student Activity Fee (SAF) funding, University account access through the Student Government and Organization Services office, facility use and campus reservations access, discounted pricing structures, access to SGA reservable and allocated space, and organizational use of the Student Affairs engagement platform.

Recognition of RSOs shall not be construed as an agreement, support or approval by the University, but only as an acknowledgement of the rights of the organization to exist at the University, subject to the conditions enumerated herein. To become or remain an RSO, the following criteria must be met:
Registration
- Must be in good standing with the University of Oklahoma.
- Must register, or re-register, annually through the Student Government and Organization Services office within the Division of Student Affairs.

Adviser(s)
- Must have a full-time University staff / faculty member as an adviser.
- Part-time, PEAK, temporary, and graduate assistant employees may not advise RSOs.

Student Membership
- Must have at least ten (10) active, currently enrolled, OU student members.
  - Dually enrolled high school students are not eligible for membership.
  - To serve in a leadership capacity, undergraduate / graduate students must be currently enrolled and in good standing with the University and with their academic college during their appointment or election and throughout their term in leadership.
  - All students holding leadership positions must have the required enrollment statuses at the campus where the organization is registered.

Safety & Insurance
- It is the responsibility of the RSO (including members and advisers) to:
  - secure insurance (through their national affiliate or other carriers) for its members and / or any events, practices, competitions, etc. necessitating insurance.
    ▪ Option: The University Risk Management and Insurance Association (URMIA) offers the TULIP event insurance program created specifically for groups (or “third parties”). More information can be found at: https://tulip.ajgrms.com/
  - abide by the Risk Management Policy and ensure the appropriate forms and waivers are signed and maintained by the faculty / staff adviser(s).
    ▪ Option: The Student Government and Organization Services office provides waivers, medical forms, and other forms and templates for use by RSOs.
  - operate in a safe and responsible manner within the standard rules and practices of its organization, club, and / or sport.
    ▪ For CCSOs and SCSOs: Must have present at least one member with current CPR certification (water Competitive and / or Sport Clubs must also have present at least one member with current and appropriate American Red Cross, YMCA, or comparable lifeguard certification), and it is highly recommended the adviser(s), coach(es), and club leadership be certified in the appropriate trainings listed above.

Prohibited
- No organization may serve as an “umbrella organization” and / or receive funding on behalf of another organization.
• All RSOs must adhere to the University’s Non-Discrimination Policy unless the appropriate exemption has been granted
