Committee Reports-

- Campus Outreach, Safety, and Concerns: We now have dates for November. Turn Up for Transit will be November 15th. And we believe that Fluffy Pups and Coffee Cups will be on Dec 3rd. There will also be an RSO event on November 5th.
- Congressional Administration: We saw CB-102-30. It was originally a congressional privacy act. It is not that any more. We recessed and changed the bill's purpose. In the case that constituents really want to know if their representatives are attending, we changed it to just the secretary posting the attendance. Plus, the reasons for a persons' attendance aren't public. We changed the secretary responsibilities; they now must post the attendance record. It will be posted online through a bit.ly. This bill received a recommendation of do pass.
- External Affairs: I'm going to brag on my committee really quick. We are pretty legislation savvy right now. We have introduced the most legislation in this committee than in any other sessions. Right now, we are rallying up support and beginning the project for Higher-Ed day.
- Human Diversity: We met with head of International Advisory Committee to discuss the logistics of Friendsgiving on November 19th. Jamelia came to our Sunday meeting to talk about our projects. There will also be another tabling event soon.
- Sustainability: This was a pretty big week for sustainability as well. On Thursday we had Tess present to the Campus Activities Council executive to discuss sustainability measures at their events and help make it easier for them to implement sustainability measures. We also had a Food Justice panel on Thursday. Today we had a trash walk. We also looked into cross lighting issue. Cross lights are already out, so we do not know what to do next with that.
- University Policy: So, we have a couple bills not this Tuesday but next Tuesday, one for a mental health module and one dealing with the rise in sexual misconduct reporting. There has been a rise in recording of sexual misconduct, but we don't know if it is because sexual misconduct is happening more or if more people are reporting it. We are still looking at one project changing time cars are ticketed, instead of 9 its 7. But it is dangerous to be walking alone in the dark. 9 is way too late to be walking alone in the dark.

- Ways and Means: We saw Auxiliary 8 Sunday; we gave it a recommendation of do pass. This is the first meeting that lasted over an hour and a half. Yay to them to stick it out.
