CONGRESSIONAL RESOLUTION CR-106-02
SENATE BILL NO GF 21-XX

AS INTRODUCED

A Concurring Resolution celebrating the 200th Anniversary of the Cherokee Syllabary, relating to the preservation of languages, relating to the expansion of scholarships, relating to tribal compacting; and providing for distribution.

- Whereas: The Cherokee Syllabary was completed in 1821 by George “Sequoyah” Guess; and
- Whereas: The Development of a formal written language allowed for the advancement of the Cherokee People into written modes of communication, like the Cherokee Phoenix and the Cherokee Constitution, both of which are still in place today; and
- Whereas: There are less than 2000 First Language Cherokee speakers; and
- Whereas: The University of Oklahoma only provides up to three semesters of Cherokee and all indigenous languages, incompatible with the efforts to create new fluent speakers for the perpetuation of indigenous languages; and
- Whereas: Tribes of Oklahoma, including The Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma, are actively seeking opportunities to promote the learning and use of their native languages; and
- Whereas: Student interest is the driving factor behind developing new classes; and
- Whereas: The University of Oklahoma has the largest indigenous language class selection in the world; providing courses in 4 languages indigenous to tribes of Oklahoma; and therefore

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT CONGRESS THAT:

- Section 1: Title: This resolution shall be known and may be cited as the “Preserving Indigenous Languages Resolution of 2021”
- Section 2: The Student Government Association celebrates the 200th Anniversary of the Cherokee Syllabary.

Section 3: The Student Government Association President, Vice-President, Graduate Student Senate Chair, and Undergraduate Student Congress Chair should promote to the Board of Regents and the University President an expansion of the current course selection in indigenous languages to promote advanced knowledge and fluency of indigenous languages.

Section 4: The Student Government Association President, Vice-President, Graduate Student Senate Chair, and Undergraduate Student Congress Chair should promote to the Board of Regents and the University President a compact between the University and Tribal Nations to provide for scholarships to cover the cost of tuition for students pursuing advanced knowledge and fluency of indigenous languages.

Section 5: The Student Government Association should explore options to increase student interest in the learning and preserving of indigenous languages.

Section 6: The Student Government Association President, Vice-President, Graduate Student Senate Chair, and Undergraduate Student Congress Chair should promote to the Board of Regents and the University and Tribal Nations to provide funds for the cost of instruction, administration, curriculum, and all other costs associated with the expansion of indigenous languages education.

Section 7: Copies of this resolution will be sent to:

- The University of Oklahoma Board of Regents
- President of the University of Oklahoma Joseph Harroz
- Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation Chuck Hoskin Jr.,
- Deputy Chief of the Cherokee Nation Bryan Warner
