THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT CONGRESS
CONGRESSIONAL SESSION CXII

October 22, 2024

CONGRESSIONAL RESOLUTION CR-112-02

AS INTRODUCED

A Congressional to encourage the University of Oklahoma to suggest to its staff and faculty to provide an excused absence to students on Election Day; and providing for distribution.

Whereas: The mission of the University of Oklahoma Undergraduate Student Congress “is to represent the interests of undergraduate students in their pursuit of academic and individual achievement. The Undergraduate Student Congress is committed to building a strong campus community, promoting civic engagement, and enhancing the quality of the undergraduate experience at the University of Oklahoma.”

Whereas: Students at the University of Oklahoma are on track to become well rounded, engaged citizens due to the institution’s academic excellence, and an essential component of civic engagement is the practice of voting; and

Whereas: Research shows that voting is habit-forming, and universities play a key role in introducing students to the voting process, particularly during formative years of civic development; and<sup>1</sup>

Whereas: The mission statement of the University of Oklahoma is “to provide the best possible educational experience for our students through excellence in teaching, research and creative activity, and service to the state and society.”<sup>2</sup>

Whereas: The University of Oklahoma’s President Joseph Harroz Jr. has emphasized the importance of educating students about democracy, stating, “One of the things that we know a university stands for is not just giving individuals the opportunities they otherwise wouldn’t have in helping create a great workforce but to teach students about democracy,” at a recent Norman city council meeting; and<sup>3</sup>

Whereas: The University of Oklahoma is a Voter Friendly Campus, as recognized by the NASPA and Campus Vote Project and is committed to the ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge Presidential Commitment, promoting active voter participation through resources for registration, sample ballots, candidate information, and poll worker opportunities; and<sup>4</sup>

Whereas: Despite these efforts, Election Day has not been federally recognized as a holiday, nor has it been recognized as a holiday on campus, and Oklahoma’s voting hours of 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. conflict with most students’ academic and work schedules; and<sup>5</sup>

Whereas: A full-time student must be enrolled in at least 12 credit hours per week, and many students work an additional 20 hours per week on campus or longer off-campus, leaving limited time for voting or to travel to go vote; and<sup>6</sup>

Whereas: Only 59% of University of Oklahoma students voted in person during the 2022 elections, contributing to Oklahoma’s status as the state with the lowest youth voter turnout at just 15%, and one of the lowest overall voter turnout rates in the nation at 50.4%; and<sup>7 8</sup>

Whereas: The trend of declining voter turnout continues, with lower participation reported in the 2024 primary elections; and <sup>9</sup>

- Whereas: According to the Regents' Policy Manual for the University of Oklahoma "Undergraduate Student Congress and Graduate Student Senate shall have authority to recommend to the President one unscheduled school holiday in the Fall semester of each academic year with the understanding the recommendation of a holiday must be made to the President at least two weeks before the recommended date in order to allow time for adjusting teaching schedules and the like.", and<sup>10</sup>
- Whereas: This recommendation has historically been allocated to the Red River Holiday, blocking the ability to recognize Election Day as a holiday; and<sup>11</sup>
- Whereas: Previous efforts to secure an additional unscheduled holiday for Election Day have been rejected, leaving students without formal protections for their right to vote.<sup>12</sup>
- Whereas: Despite efforts from the University of Oklahoma Student Congress to protect students' right to vote, previous requests to designate Election Day as a holiday have not resulted in changes to university policy, and<sup>13</sup>
- Whereas: The lack of flexibility in students' schedules—due to class attendance requirements and work commitments—creates significant barriers to voter participation, and<sup>14</sup>
- Whereas: The continued low voter turnout, both at the university and statewide, demonstrates the urgent need for additional accommodations to ensure that students are not

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT CONGRESS THAT:

Section 1: Title: This resolution shall be known and may be cited as the “Voting Day and Voting Rights Resolution of 2024.”

Section 2: The Undergraduate Student Congress urges professors to provide an excused absence on November 5, 2024, allowing students to vote without academic penalty. Professors are encouraged to make class materials digitally accessible for that day.

Section 3: Students should not face academic strain or punishment for exercising their right to vote.

Sections 4: The Undergraduate Student Congress asks the Deans of the respective colleges to encourage their faculty to support this request.

Section 5: The implementation of excused absences shall be left to the discretion of each professor.

Section 6: Recognizing that other solutions, such as designating Election Day as a university holiday, have not been possible, this resolution represents a last-resort effort to protect students' voting rights.

Section 7: Copies of this resolution will be sent to:

- President Joseph Harroz Jr., University of Oklahoma
- David Surratt, Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students
- John Antonio, Dean of the Mewbourne College of Earth and Energy.

GRADUATE STUDENT SENATE

SENATE SESSION GFXX/GSXX

Month DD, YYYY

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. GFXX-XX/GSXX-XX

AS INTRODUCED

A Concurrent Resolution recognizing and protecting Free Speech and National Freedom of Speech Week; and providing for distribution.

Whereas: The United States has federally protected the right to free speech through the First Amendment under the Bill of Rights, ratified December 15, 1791; and,

Whereas: The First Amendment<sup>16</sup> protects peaceful protest, assembly, hate speech, and petition, including the use of posters, signs, flyers, and chalking in permissible spaces set by the university; and,

Whereas: Actions which violate Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, such as property damage, trespassing, violence, and illegal harassment, in addition to language that aims to incite or threaten violence, is unprotected<sup>17</sup>; and,

Whereas: Public universities, such as the University of Oklahoma, are subject to the First Amendment, and cannot withhold awarding students a degree as a result of peaceful protest, nor can the President call the police on peaceful protest<sup>18</sup>.

Whereas: University of Oklahoma President, Joseph Harris, released a statement stating, “The freedom to speak, inquire, and express strikes at the heart of any great institution of higher learning.”<sup>19</sup>

Whereas: From October 7, 2023, to May 30, 2024, the Crowd Counting Consortium, logged over 3,700 days of protest activity across 525 colleges, universities, K-12 schools, and school district offices across 317 cities in the United States; and,

Whereas: Nearly 2,200 days of protest activity occurred after April 17, 2024, most remaining entirely non-violent, and

Whereas: Protests at many other Universities were met with “immediate and aggressive hostility” by police and University officials, with 3,645 arrests occurring since October 7, 2023<sup>5</sup>

Whereas: We recognize that temporarily occupying educational spaces may be a necessary means to incentivizing change, which is permissible, as it helps the campus community in the long term<sup>20</sup>; and,

Whereas: Having solidified free speech rights encourages a higher degree of expression and advocacy within the University of Oklahoma community, urging a modern environment that consistently works to benefit all those involved; and,

Whereas: Historically, the University of Oklahoma’s administration has allowed students the right to protest, which has encouraged student involvement and leadership<sup>21</sup>; and,

Whereas: The continuation of this allowance not only upholds a fundamental constitutional freedom, but demonstrates an environment of diversity, social evolution, civil service, tolerance, and academic freedom.

Whereas: The University of Oklahoma Administration has remained steadfast in its commitment to protecting free speech and peaceful protest, while maintaining a neutral stance by ensuring all groups, regardless of viewpoint, are afforded equal opportunities to exercise their right to protest.

Whereas: President Joseph Harroz Jr. recently stated in relation to the protests, “We shouldn’t

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION:

- Section 1: Title: This resolution shall be known and may be cited as the “National Freedom of Speech Week Resolution of 2024.”
- Section 2: The University of Oklahoma Student Government Association recognizes the third week of October as Free Speech Week<sup>23</sup> and supports the First Amendment right to freedom of speech and safe protests within the University of Oklahoma campus.
- Section 3 In accordance with the First Amendment, the Undergraduate Student Congress defines, ‘free speech,’ as the right of the public to share their beliefs and protest with the aim of helping the campus community, through peaceful means in public spaces.
- Section 4: While universities may restrict protest access to non-students and impose unbiased limitations on the setting and noise level of a protest, the Undergraduate Student Congress, asks that the University of Oklahoma uphold this resolution and the First Amendment in all policy, allowing for freedom of speech to be maintained.
- Section 5: We urge the University of Oklahoma to stay attentive to any potential harassment of student protesters by faculty or staff and to take prompt and decisive action should such incidents arise, ensuring that students' right to free speech is not undermined.
- Section 6: The Undergraduate Student Congress thanks the University of Oklahoma for allowing peaceful protests to occur on campus, no matter the background or views of the organization. We commend the University of Oklahoma’s commitment to letting student voices be heard.
