Secondly, I am so excited to meet all of our new members! Congratulations to everyone who won your election. One hour of constituent service and one office hour is due for the month of April. You only have to do one office hour this month since it is getting into a high volume time for school and classes! Special Orders

Student Concerns

Old Business

Items to Be Considered

950116 State of the SGA Update Act (Sample/Tadlock) (Rec of do pass)

Nguyen sec Chun

Sample: this bill simply moves state of the SGA out of the final meeting so more students can come. That final meeting is very important and is an opportunity for SGA to update the student body on our work.

Echols: friendly amendment?

Sample: no, this is about moving outside of our congress meetings. I would like it to be held similarly to inauguration. I don't want to say this is for congress.

Reid: Scriveners error?

Kelling: open to adding a member of congress must be present? Shouldn't congress be there?

Sample: no, we changed this last year because it was supposed to be a joint session and that wasn't happening. We put it in the last meeting but that took 3.5 hours before the state even took place.

Everybody left and it was inappropriate. We want the state of the SGA should mimic the inauguration.

We want this to be independent of quorum. It is up to the chair to encourage attendance. CAC needs to be there.

Kelling: line about chairs make effort to ensure that members attend?

Sample: there's no need and we can't force it so no

Owings: When would this be?

Sample: it's supposed to be after spring election but before finals. This is at the discretion of the interior. It is currently planned for the last week of April. We need our new CAC chair to be elected before a certain date is selected.

Reid: Couldn't this be circumvented by moving out of standard rules and moving this into special orders.

Sample: It was last night, but we wanted to see all of our legislation. We need a chair for the state of the SGA to be delivered.

Motion to extend time for questions by 2 minutes Chun sec Williams

Sample: I had to present immediately after being elected. The process wasn't working.

Reid: This is a solution to people not showing up to see them, how does this guarantee?

Sample: It doesn't, but it does allow for publication

Byron: does the CAC still have state of the CAC?

Sample: yes

Byron: has there been talk about setting them at the same time>

Sample: not yet

Echols: how is this any different than informal presentation

Motion to extend time for questions by 5 minutes Zahra sec Reid

Sample: this one is mandated and has to happen. We can't get rid of it without referendum. I think it should continue. The student body needs to know what's going on.

Echols: Is it counterintuitive to remove congress?

Sample: no, the point is for the student body to be informed, congress can still be involved. The Chair will be there and exec will be involved. That's up to their discretion. This is only moving its setting.

Owings: friendly amendment?

Sample: no, I don't think that if it's long, I don't want to read it aloud. It could get lost, but that's a good recommendation. WE should make it readily available to the bodies.

Reid: Could we make it a requirement?

Sample: That's outside the scope of this legislation. That would be in the bylaws. The secretary is not here.

Debate

Echols hostile amendment

Motion to recess for 5 minutes Elliot sec Chun

Brown: hostile amendment?

He proposed a hostile amendment, there has to be a second

Echols sec Israel

Echols: I think our important job is government oversight. I think that it's important at the state of the SGA that we know what is going on in the executive. It's very important and were a important part of that. We represent the student body. This is based on the state of the union, which is delivered before congress. I think for that reason it should stay with us.

Sample: there will be media presence, is that not sufficient? Many members may be unable to attend.

Echols: no simply because the edits that can be introduced

Sample: Why is the senate being ignored?

Echols: why did you leave them out?

Reid: without this language, is there anything barring members from going to this event

Echols: no, but it needs to be delivered to us, the confirmation is why its important

Reid: this language is based solely on keeping the address to the congress?

Echols: It is principle and practical

Sample: what does it mean?

Echols: direct delivery as it has been

Williams: do you mean in this room or anywhere on campus.

Echols: theoretically wherever.

Sample: does by delivering to congress mean to stay in the congress

Echols: I think that it's important but in this bill

Benjamin: How important is non congressional attendance?

Echols: I think if this was a general address, there would be less of a need, but this is vital

Objection- Reid

Motion to extend time for question to the end of the list Owings sec Kelling

Watts: how would it be determined if it was delivered to the congress?

Echols: it is self—explanatory.

James: are you concerned if congress will be there for oath of office or state of the SGA?

Echols: more concerned with verifying the oath

Benjamin: How important is it for non-congress members to attend?

Echols: while state of SGA talks about the whole, it largely concerns the executive, and congress needs to hear that

Watts: If someone says it has to be delivered to quorum, would that have to be at a meeting? Is that overly complicated?

Echols: no, we have avenues to deal with that

Kelling: Would a written copy be sufficient?

Echols: that would be beneficial, but like Sample said, there could be issues.

Kovach: You think that timeliness of us being there rather than affirming later may alleviate complications at another time/

Echols: yes

Williams: You have secretary, if she was there, and emailed it out, wouldn't that be sufficient.

Echols: the minutes are not word for word and are not perfect, and it is tough to keep up with someone who's talking, we need to be there

Sample: friendly amendment to hostile amendment,

Echols: if you include that it needs to be in our meeting, not in current wording

Motion to move to recess Kelling sec Reid

Echols: no, it's important for us to be there

Reid: Is the congress required at CAC swearing in to increase validity?

Echols: nothing to do with validity, being there for the oath is our job. We are charged with oversight.

Benjamin: Would it be more effective for SGA members to get a summary? Why?

Echols: I have no problem with getting a copy of the address, but I do believe it imperative that the oath and swearing in are presented to the body

Motion to move to a roll call vote Reid sec Pham

Motion to suspend the rules and go back in time for questions to the author Kelling sec Owings

950117 Actually Communicating Bill of 2016 (Reid) (Rec of do pass)

Owings sec Zahra

Reid: This is a formalization of an idea by PR for exec and senate and myself, it's a department joint communications. This is meant to facilitate better communication between our groups. We want to communicate about what we are communicating to the student body. It would allow for crossover between terms and collaboration. Our counterparts can help out in this department moving forward. I want to see what you think.

Israel: why is CAC given the option?

Reid: CAC in the past operates on their own, while GSS and exec and congress are analogous. The others believed that they should be allowed but not compulsory

Echols: Did you actually speak to CAC?

Reid: We have not, it was an initiative by GSS, congress, and exec

Sample: Pavlov has been made aware

Echols: Would it be better to strike and add more concrete wording?

Reid: I'm open but I think the language allows the legislative body to move on their own way. CAC can be a part if they wish, but we should not require it.

Cramm: with CAC wording may create a divide between us and CAC?

Reid: I think it encourages to come, forcing them to come would be unnecessary. They will come when events concern everyone. I have faith.

Cramm: Doesn't this cause a divide instead of building up communication by rendering CAC other?

Reid: if there was another system that did not require a vote, that may be agreeable.

Motion to extend time for questions by 5 minutes Williams sec Echols

Byron: why is this all in director's section?

Reid: Chair?

Sample: There wasn't a good spot for it under titles and did not want to put it in the bylaws. We also didn't want to give it its own heading.

Byron: that is only explained under director duties?

Sample: yes

Israel: friendly amendment

Reid: yes

Owings: Does the vote have any power or is it a forum?

Reid: this is more a forum, votes are for SGA as a whole to promote something

Williams: will the members have voting privileges in both bodies?

Reid: they will not have voting rights in any other context, only in department. No jurisdiction over committees, only within the department.

Motion to extend time for question to the end of the list Mee sec Pham

Reid: they (members) have no jurisdiction over my committee PR for congress, this is only for SGA as a whole PR

Watts: in 'I', they shall meet? Is there any enforcement there?

Reid: you're not fulfilling your duty

Sample: that means you can dismiss your committee chair

Owings: in 'I' is CAC not joining interfere with seats being filled? Friendly amendment?

Reid: I didn't notice that,

Sample: the CAC chair can opt out, we wouldn't have to include them in majority. This meeting isn't based on quorum. Up to the author.

Reid: If they fall through, I think it's important for other meetings to be there, do not accept friendly amendment. If one position is not filled, VC takes their seat. It was agreed upon by the authors.

Byron: department only oversees accounts corresponding to entire SGA, is that giving them signing power necessary for that account.

Reid: no monetary accounts, only social media, don't want to limit people to Facebook

Watts: friendly amendment?

Reid: yes

Williams: back to voting, what do they vote on?

Reid: they vote on things like promotion as a whole, for all of SGA. The exec right now promotes as SGA, this department makes this an agreement. Holding events, we can all decide together.

Brown: why are we creating another forum or committee?

Reid: this is supposed to make it easier to publicize as SGA, not as executive.

Echols: CAC does not refer to itself as SGA?

Reid: they are a branch of SGA under our logo, they may not always promote themselves as CAC only

Watts: is this the same as department of communications?

Reid: no, one is for the executive branch solely

Williams: Do the PR chairs have to go through anyone?

Reid: no, this is meant to encourage communication between the branches. It's up to the department.

When we met, we discussed how this was an opportunity to get feedback

Sample: the heads of all of the branches will know what they're holding, it will be de facto cleared by bodies

Watts: in 2, a long term vacancy indicates department does not exist?

Reid: if the senate doesn't have a PR chair, or the department is not appointed, this would allow VC to fill vacancy

Williams: building communication, if the CAC chair doesn't join, the idea becomes void?

Reid: I don't think so, communication between 3 or 2 branches is beneficial. We would still like to meet to discuss even in such circumstances.

Watts: friendly amendment?

Reid: no, but I would accept something else

Brown: If this department oversees everything, why can't there just be a meeting?

Reid: this formalizes everything. I had no one who suggested that I should communicate with the other branches. I believe that this urges that communication better, and clarifies responsibility.

Watts: friendly amendment?

Reid: yes

Brown: what decision making power and authority would this group have?

Reid: if we wanted to make pamphlets, this would allow us to decide design, layout, and we could take this to our respective departments. We could effectively run media for SGA

Williams: discussing 2, in case of vacancy, is that indefinitely?

Reid: until its filled

Cramm: yea through exec

Kelling: who is that?

Kelling: what is their focus?

Cramm: no clue

Echols: service for Hispanic and Latinos

Meetings shall be scheduled for one hour, including time necessary for the judge’s deliberation. Judges shall dismiss the student and discuss the case amongst themselves before reaching a decision. A Chief Justice shall then send the decision to Parking Services.
