Mission Statement

Approval of Minutes
Representative Nath seconded by Representative Angstadt
Chair's Report - Hey everyone,

We had a joint committee on Sunday to talk about plans for the Conoco 2nd and 3rd office spaces. We are still conversing on what all to do there.

I spoke at CLA yesterday and got to meet a couple of associates I haven't met yet and that was really exciting. I am consistently meeting with the committee chairs and they are telling me about everyone's projects and I am also very excited about all of that.

I am sure everyone heard that school will be online after thanksgiving break. They are keeping campus open and housing and food will remain up and running. You probably also heard about spring break being replaced with an extra week of Christmas break. I hope you all understand why that decision was made.

Tonight is the official election of CAC chair, so make sure to vote. Also, filing is open for Congress and SGA president. If you are a new rep in congress you MUST run in this election to maintain your seat. The reason we do that is because everyone that serves in congress needs to be elected and the new reps were appointed not elected. Associates, you can run for your district rep seat if you wish. If you run and do not get a rep seat, you may still keep your associateship, so run cause you have nothing to lose.

Finally I will be making a joint committee soon to discuss the communication director so look out for updates on that. OU/TX is this weekend. Please be safe. Do not drink and drive, wear your mask, ask for consent.

Vice Chair's Report -

Secretary's Report – Hi everyone! If you didn't hear your name called for attendance or you came in after your name was called, please make sure to let me know because I mark down your name for voting to make sure I don't call anyone who isn't here. I hope you all are holding in there as we're approaching midterms. Reminder that if you ever need to talk about anything, my door is always open.

Committee Reports-

- Campus Outreach, Safety, and Concerns: We met Sunday. Turn Up For Transit, we're working with Chris Glenn. Research for childcare, looking at options available now. Kendall Few is looking into that. We're doing a committee on Goddard. Some is mental health, some is about international students. Gym survey will be formulated this week. We used student money to update the gym, so they should get a say in where their money goes. Also virtual mixer with international students and SGA members. Historically it's been international students representing international students, but they have reps in their colleges. I want to meet with IFC president about masking. Planning meeting about pre-pharmacy changes. Scheduling another Light Walk at the end of the month. Tell everyone about the suggestions box. Reach out to your constituents and friends and everything.

- Congressional Administration: This weekend, Civic Participation Act of 2020. Changes date of our election by one day. Also seeing something about spring election since it usually depends on Spring Break. Small changes to True Democracy NOW. Taking out IFC elections since we don't run them anymore. Doesn't take affect until spring semester. Also, land acknowledgement project. ConAd doesn't meet this weekend but Code Club does meet.
- External Affairs: EA didn't officially meet this week. Updates still. Abby Broyles visited campus. I met with her as well as Savannah and some others. I'm learning about her direct policies that affect students. Very proud of Rachel for getting Abby here. Tabling in the Union Courtyard more this week. This week is National Voter Education Week. Local elections we're having we'll make voter guides as well as national. Directing that to Executive Branch PR director. Deadline to register in Oklahoma is Friday at 5pm. You can use your campus address to register here. Another project, we want to make a video about why it's important to international students that their US friends vote and how policies impact them. Get in contact with Giovanna if you're interested about that project. Finally, our local liaison attends city council meetings every Tuesday night and also is working with Rep Kerr on a city-wide Trash Walk.
- Human Diversity: Projects now include Friendsgiving, menstrual products drive with the GEC. Also, newsletter for OU students. Constituent member of COSCO reached out about vegan food options in Couch, working with Frank Henry on that on signage and options. Legislation and collaboration with other committees in the future.
- Sustainability: Social media in the next few weeks. Developing the next Trash Walk. Working on a city-wide Trash Walk. Also inquiries about campus plastic use. Looking at campus lighting and landscaping. May involved executive branch over time. Also looking into coordination with the Athletics Department. Maybe spicy legislation, but that's a bit away.
- University Policy: A few updates. We contacted administrators, Office of the Provost for course evals. Contacted BERT to see how we can help them in following up about last spring. Also University Counseling to address wait time issues and advice for students who do have wait times for counselors and what they should do in the meantime. Regarding pass/no pass option, in my previous emails, the Provost's Office said they could take action if the university went online. Not sure where that's at, at the moment. Working with Faculty Senate to see if we can get something to show to admin. Malachi, Dalton, and I were there. We came to a compromise, they seem to be in favor of a pass/no pass option provided that the threshold for a pass would be a C instead of a D. That was a concern for Engineering and Math classes. Talks will continue. Legislation coming out of UPol soon about that to support an agreement or whatever comes out of our talks. If you have ideas about what we should say to them next time, we're meeting with them Monday of next week. Anything else you want me to relay to the Faculty Senate, please let me know.
- Ways and Means: We saw aux 4, and so will all of you.

Liaison Reports

Marvin: During our meetings, but PRRSA is on Zoom. Anyone interested, they're more than welcome to come. Ad Club meets every other Wednesday. I'm close with the presidents of both clubs.

Broadbent: First, OK Votes and EA co-hosting VP Debate Watch Party tomorrow night. 7:15 Zoom options. Two people who are professors on campus will give commentary. The comments section was cool last time. Indigenous People's Day is next Monday, October 12th. Online things, tabling on the South Oval.

Loayza: National Coming Out Day Sunday. I worked with the GEC for resources and graphics, so watch out for that this Sunday.

Bryant: I'm a TA for gateway. Student panel October 22. We need 3-4 students. It's on Tuesdays and Thursdays. If you want to bring awareness to your group reach out to me.

Merchant: It's Rape Awareness Week. Later this week we have Take Back the Night. GEC and HD planning menstrual product drive. We're also trying to do a CAS project about how people are staying connected.

Kerr: OU College Dems is doing phone banking once a week every week till the election. Tomorrow 4-6pm. Let me or Becca know and we'll get you set up.

Special Orders

Student Concerns

Nath: Foster talked about this, but I'm working on Title 12 of the Code, the Indigenous Land Acknowledgement. I think it needs to be revised in light of recent OK laws. Also I got in touch with NAS and Linguistics Department and I proposed the idea of translating this into Choctaw and Cherokee because language is giving power back to communities. Department seemed excited. Also mention of this not being read at recurring meetings. I want to get a shorter version for recurring meetings. Anyone interested, reach out to me, I have a GroupMe.

Items to Be Considered

AB-104-06 Auxiliary Allocation 6 Act of 2020-2021 (Patton) (WAM, Do Pass)

Representative Nath seconded by Representative Mojekwu

Patton: Aux 4. We gave them $9260. Any questions, let me know.

Nath: What does TPUSA do?

Patton: Conservative political org for youth in America.

Buxton: Going over the minutes. In announcements, you said discussion was partisan? I didn't see that.

Patton: It was Sertovic recusing herself.

Bouch: I wanted to ask, with TPUSA's gross negligence not wearing masks on campus, how can we fund them not following guidelines?

Patton: We will fund an org if they're in good standing. Whether or not they're following policy needs to be followed up with George. From a funding perspective, if an org hasn't registered with ENGAGE yet, I can't put money in the account. If they were unregistered due to not following guidelines, they couldn't spend any money.

Bouch: Is any funding to TPUSA going to food?

Patton: All of it.

Bouch: Since TPUSA has violated university guidelines and all the money is going to food, FA striking their name?

Patton: Not at this time. If I'm told I cannot fund them due to guidelines I will take action. They will be referred to the Student Conduct Office if they violate protocol.

30-1-3

CB-104-20 Civic Participation Act of 2020 (Yanez/Murrell/Hillis) (ConAd, Do Pass)

Representative Buxton seconded by Representative Nath

Hillis: This moves our election dates from November 3 and 4 to the 4 and 5. We don't have on campus classes that day and we want people to vote in the federal elections too. Doesn't affect any filing. It pushes things after election one day back. This doesn't affect anything before it, it only affects things after it.

Broadbent: Why do you feel it's necessary to shift the election to the next couple of days when it takes five minutes and it's online to vote in our election.

Hillis: It's important we don't take those five minutes away from those voting in the federal election and it will be difficult to publicize it off campus.

CB-104-19 True Democracy NOW Act of 2020 (Hillis) (Exec, Do Pass)

Representative Nath seconded by Representative Smail

Hillis: Hopefully this is the last time we talk about True Democracy NOW. If you weren't here last week, there are four main goals. First, safeguard candidates. Second, accessibility for voters. Removes fines, streamlines language, and reorganizes sections. Tell me the page numbers and sections if you're asking questions please unless it's an overarching question.

Broadbent: Why does this bill not take affect now?

Hillis: It's been relayed to me that since filing has already opened we shouldn't be changing election rules. It doesn't take affect for fall, only afterwards.

Broadbent: Does the Code allow for digital signatures for presidential petitions?

Hillis: Not aware that it expressly allows for online signatures. Up for interpretation.

Broadbent: Does True Democracy NOW have a provision for electronic signatures for COVID?

Hillis: Moves all signatures to an online form. I think it's archaic to still have paper signatures. Language updated in exec. Physically or online. Digital signatures must be verified via Single Sign On. Your SSO is your 4x4, jointly verified by student affairs and election commission.

Nath: Compensation for election commissioner?

Hillis: No change since the last time we saw this but we still are increasing their stipend from what it used to be.

Ahmadi: Going through this, why does section 6 appear first in the legislation?

Hillis: That's a part of a title before that. It's in the judicial title. It comes chronologically before that and goes into the elections title.

Lange: FA I mentioned Sunday in exec? First, change in section 9 chapter 4, "funding printed by SGA – not an SGA endorsement." Also, it uses the language, "may not decide to forgo a sanction," change that?

Hillis: Yes.

Broadbent: Language grey regarding digital signatures. Campaigns have been reaching out to elicit digital signatures for their petition. Might violate the rules about unsolicited messages. If we passed it now would that alleviate the grey area?

Hillis: It would, yes, for acceptance of digital signatures. It would also clarify that you can use group chats. If you've received an explicit unrequested message asking for support that would be unsolicited. I haven't seen a grievance filed before the election.

Extend time 10 minutes

Representative Nath seconded by Representative Broadbent

Broadbent: FA passing True Democracy NOW, now, to alleviate the grey area about digital signatures and unsolicited messages?

Hillis: No because of the discussions I've had. Could propose a hostile.

Hong: Under election commission, says it should consist of 3-5 commissioners.

Hillis: 3 or 5 members, if one isn't there, the commissioner would break the tie.

Lynskey: chapter 4, section 3 campaign finance. What is the necessity of limiting finance in SGA elections?

Hillis: This is in line with current rules. Allows for people to be on an equal playing field. The presidential race years back was limited to $2000 for presidential, so I think this is more reasonable.

Buxton: A couple weeks ago, we saw election reform bill on group chats. How does that relate to Broadbent's concerns?

Hillis: That took away the provision about unsolicited messaging. Wording used in CAC bill was taken from True Democracy NOW.

Merchant: I think there was a bill awhile back that said a part of campaign finances would be covered by SGA?

Hillis: SGA pays for certain printing. Not for sure what constitutes printing. If Budgetary Chair Patton or George wants to clarify.

Ahmadi: New provision Richard Holt put in there. Very few people have taken advantage of that. I connect you with printing services to print your stuff.

Merchant: If a candidate asks for $10 worth of fliers and it's paid for by SGA, does that detract from their funding limit?

Hillis: Yes.

Griffin: Since this bill doesn't go into effect until Spring, if a candidate makes a violation in this election that might be changed, would it still be filed against them?

Hillis: Yes, changes don't go into effect until after the validation of the fall election.

South: Do you think that given the length of time it takes for a bill to go through Congress, GSS, and the presidency, it might put that in the middle of the presidential election?

Hillis: I can see how that would have grey area. It would be a switch. On this day and hour, grievance rules switches.

Lynskey: him in chapter 5 section 11, change from himself/herself to themselves.

Buxton: Concerns from the body about this about enacting it now. Can you go further on why enacting it now wouldn't be a good idea?

Patterson: We get issues if we pick and choose which rules are enacted now or later. About pushing it to spring, it's because people view election rules before they file. Because people are aware of the rules before they file, changing rules after they file, it's complicated.

Extend time for questions 10min

Representative Lynskey seconded by Representative Harman

Buxton: I didn't mean Peyton would decide, more like Congress would split the question addressing some concerns immediately?

Patterson: It makes the process more complex than it needs to be. Feels like this election is a big one. In the grand scheme of things, it's just one election and this bill is so important that we want to make it the best and long lasting. Complicating it too much could have poor implications.

Ahmadi: Is the chair's stipend $500 per election?

Hillis: Correct. $500 for spring election and fall election.

Broadbent: What happens if we pass this, it doesn't take effect until spring, candidates collect digital signatures, and there's a lawsuit before the Superior Court?

Hillis: That's a constitutional question I don't feel comfortable answering.

Buxton: I'm concerned about having another election like the CAC election where we don't get to elect anybody. Could you split the question to eliminate the confusion so digital signatures aren't invalidated so we don't have to have another special election fiasco?

Hillis: The Code doesn't expressly prohibit digital signatures. Furthermore, I think you're asking to change the last section. I won't accept a FA about that. The Superior Court would use the current law during the time violations happened, so if it was split and passed now and later, the things we pass now won't help our situation. I also don't think the election chair or George didn't have any malice going to digital signatures. We're in a pandemic.

Harman: chapter 1, number 1, h. Do candidates have to choose digital or physical or can it be a mixture of both.

Hillis: I would imagine it's either/or. Collecting them online will be easier for candidates and George, Mary, and the Elections Commission who have to verify those signatures.

Recess for 2 minutes

Representative Buxton seconded by Representative Broadbent

Broadbent: Are you aware of a Superior Court justice on the call who would like to give their opinion?

Hillis: I am now. It is unorthodox that a single justice would come speak if it's not the Chief Justice. The only person who can give advice is the General Counsel. This is our branch, we shouldn't be inviting other branches to give opinions.

Broadbent: Did General Counsel give advice?

Hillis: We've been in contact and they gave notes. On digital signatures, because of the ENGAGE verbiage, the online digital signatures would count under standing rules.

Debate called by Representative Broadbent

Hostile Amendment

Representative Broadbent seconded by Representative Few

Broadbent: I can't in good conscience do something that would cause more ambiguity and problems. I fully expect many won't agree, but I don't want to vote yes on a bill that would make the election process better but only passes after the fall election. We can't use what this bill was truly designed for. The presidential election in SGA is the most important we conduct. I understand concerns by a Superior Court justice about not passing this bill now. I would like to defer to their opinion. They are in favor of passing this now. The president could sign this bill Monday morning before the first candidate meeting occurs. General Council, the Elections Commissioner have both seen this bill already.

Bouch: Do you think this bill will be passed and signed by President Norris before the election occurs?

Broadbent: I think it's very likely.

Harman: What is the hostile again?

Broadbent: Makes this bill pass now.

Mayer: Wouldn't it be easier to make this bill ex post facto to be retroactive rather than the hostile amendment?

Broadbent: That might be easier, but easier isn't always right. What's right is to get it done with now and do what we think is best. This is the solution we have now.

Mayer: Wouldn't making it ex post facto and your hostile amendment have the same goal? When a law is ex post facto, it has a retroactive effect. This bill would affect all things that happened before this bill was passed.

Broadbent: That would mean that this would be taken into consideration for fall 2020. That's an option, but we can just fix the problem right now. That's a good compromise if we wish to do so.

Bouch: With candidates meeting starting the 12th and GSS seeing this Sunday the 11th with no guarantee passing it or it being signed, how do you feel about candidates not knowing the rules?

Broadbent: I think it will pass GSS. If it doesn't we're in for a bit of trouble. But we're in trouble passing it now as it is. I'll defer to President Norris to ask if he could sign it before 9am Monday.

Norris: I decline to answer.

Ext time by 5min

Representative Hillis seconded by Representative Nath

Hillis: Aware that although this would fix some problems, it would create more? The Elections Board has to make the information on candidates booklet. They wouldn't have time to prepare distribution and production.

Broadbent: The Elections Chair believed this legislation would go into effect for this election and had time to prepare. She knew it could possibly happen. It will benefit the student body to know who they are voting for. Helping constituents is always worth that.

Lynskey: Hillis has outlined many large changes to how we conduct elections. Do you have any sort of physical evidence to know we could get this implemented in an equitable way before the election on November 4th.

Broadbent: Over the summer, the full intention was to put this bill in action for the fall 2020 election to alleviate the problems that occurred last election. Everyone who needs to know about the changes has been met with several times. Hillis did the work. Suddenly we decided it's too much work and we waited too long. The process is always slow. I think the right people are informed, but we waited too long, but that doesn't mean we shouldn't have the right thing.

Bouch: With this bill coming to the floor so late in the process, do you think the original intent has been modified?

Broadbent: The intention is now to save the spring election from the things the last spring election went through. To not put it into effect for this election that's so big, it's irresponsible. We should've seen it earlier. But the election is soon now. We should do right by our constituents.

Recess 2min

Bouch: I think the biggest motivation behind this is the signature process. There's no piece of this legislation that would make it retroactive. The Superior Court would have to decide based on what the rules were at the time of the electronic signatures. Signatures aren't a good enough motive to rush this legislation and change the election rules during the election season. It doesn't solve the problems it was intended to solve and creates more.

Broadbent: I'm trying to do my best by the people I represent. I want to make the election process go better for them. I think it solves problems of validation in Fall 2020. Malachi made a great point that the signatures are not good enough. GroupMes have been the largest point of contention. It led to the invalidation of the spring election. It's in our best interest to do right by the people we represent to make the process better. I think it's never too late to try to do the right thing. I think my hostile amendment will be voted down, but on my conscience I tried to do the right thing. Do right by the people you represent.

South: Malachi hit the nail on the head. If we edit True Democracy NOW making it come into effect before the validation of the general election it will cause more problems. The rules at filing are a determination of whether someone wants to run or not. This hostile amendment will further complicate things and make it harder for Superior Court to make a judgement on which rules to go by. It's wisest in my opinion to wait.

Buxton: I do have a personal stake in this bill, so I'm abstaining. It's important as a rep to speak my mind. We have a CAC election 6 months ago. We talked about group chats and digital signatures. This put a lot more stress on them. To fail to clarify the language and the Code even when we had the intention of doing so, we should do it now. I don't think it's within our right to say what's constitutional or unconstitutional. We can only speculate. 20 percent of the Superior Court said they don't know about digital signatures. I'm worried about whoever wins the presidential election, it will be challenged and we're forever waiting on who the next president will be well after the election has already happened.

Hillis: I want to go back to clear up confusion. Title 4, the number of justices is set at 7 justices. A justice commenting on a case that is not before them is out of line. Speaking on behalf of the entire court is out of line. Towards the hostile amendment, the election rules as they are are not bad. I'm happy everyone is on my side that we want to move towards a more fair election process, but rushing into that process during an ongoing election is not in our best interest. Even if GSS passes this bill and President Norris signs this into law, it doesn't give enough time to the commissioner to prepare presentations for all candidates. The solutions this hostile seeks to give provides more problems. It'd change the chair to commissioner. Sounds trivial, but all our materials still say election chair. I think that changing the election rules during the current election is a problem. It will be a great bill if it takes effect today or after the fall election.

Broadbent: I believe everyone's intention is to do best by the election. We need to do our best to do right by our constituents right now. Think hard about representing your constituents now or if you want to wait. I couldn't have passed this bill in good conscience without making the process better. It may cause problems on the SGA end, but the students matter. They vote. They have the right to be informed and True Democracy NOW helps them be informed. I am aware that this could cause problems on the SGA side but I believe I should represent my constituents first.

Hostile Amendment 7-21-6

Broadbent: Sorry I took all your time with the hostile. Foster's bill is very good and you should pass it. It'll help spring 2021 election and I'm very proud of Foster for all the hard work he put in on this bill. I appreciate you all listening to my grievances.

Follow-Up Reports

Marvin: Light Walk, Facilities Management emailed me back. They do matter. We will have lights on campus.
 South: Mask Up OU passed. We're working on distribution. Today it went out to OU Daily and Nightly as well as all students on the Norman campus.

Items for Future Agenda

South: Pass/no pass resolution.

Patton: aux 5.

Harman: Emily and I have two, National Coming Out Day, and one that follows that up.

Announcements and Comments

Ahmadi: Reflections on the discussion tonight. It's really important to note that every election board and chair is different. You have a new chair every year. If you have questions about the rules, email Peyton. Technology advances. I want to be very clear that there's so many election rules changes because SGA can't figure it all out, and that's okay. If you have questions, that starts with the chair. Two, the decision about electronic signatures was driven by me. They aren't allowing tabling to pass out materials. SGA should not be responsible for any transmission of droplets. If any candidate is accepting physical signatures, that is fine too. We'll still accept them. Both should be accepted. I don't want anyone to think this was done to subvert the rules. Any questions, email me or electionchair@ou.edu and we can discuss it.

Loayza: Me and a team of Gaylord students have been working on a podcast that goes out tomorrow, Survive and Thrive, y'all should watch it.

Nath: Little Event has hit the maximum volunteer limit of 250.

Harman: Shoutout to Foster, our wonderful ConAd chair, for his work on True Democracy NOW.

Patton: George, what's your cat's name?

Ahmadi: Holly.

The Election Commission shall make a ruling within one (1) business day after the accused has either made a written statement, after the oral hearing, or if they failed to submit either within the twenty-four (24) hour period. The Election Commissioner may not impose any points without the aforementioned hearing process.

The Election Commission, upon making a decision, shall compose a short-written opinion detailing the facts upon which its decision rests, what punishments will be imposed, and what reasoning was used to determine said punishment.  - b. The Election Commission shall assign each campaign infraction upheld against a candidate a certain number of points. The range of each is specified within this Title. In considering the amount of points to assign for any given campaign infraction, the Election Board shall consider:

4. Unofficial Notification Process. The Election Commissioner shall make an electronic form available for the duration of any election that any member of the SGA may use to submit election irregularities or other matters they would like the Election Commissions to be made aware of. The form shall allow respondents to remain anonymous if they so choose. Candidates shall be encouraged to use this in lieu of a rule violation complaint for complaints that lack sufficient evidence, and all form submissions shall be made public at the conclusion of the Election via the Election Report. Should an unofficial notification be filed that the Election Commissioner believes would more properly be considered an election complaint, it shall be dealt with as such. Following the validation of the election, the Congressional Administration Committee of the Undergraduate Student Congress shall hold a hearing to review all unofficial election notifications submitted during the election to determine if action should be taken to remedy any irregularities or other complaints detailed therein.
5. Unofficial Election Results. The Election Commission shall meet within twenty-four (24) hours of the close of the polls to certify the election results.  - e. The Election Commissioner must redact the personal information of the person that submitted any campaign infractions on the online portal. The report may only include their name.
7. Appeals. All appeals of the rulings of the Election Commission must be submitted in writing to the Chief Justice of the Superior Court within five (5) business days of the incident or ruling which generated the appeal or within three (3) business days of the close of the polls – whichever is sooner.

The Superior Court shall provide copies of all appeals relating to the election to the General Counsel, the Election Commissioner, and all other affected parties. The General Counsel, the Election Commissioner, and all affected parties shall have at least forty-eight (48) hours to file a written response. The Superior Court may also schedule oral arguments at its discretion – provided that it affords the General Counsel, the Election Commissioner, and all affected parties the opportunity to address it. If any of these parties chooses not to complete the aforementioned process, then Superior Court proceedings shall not be delayed. The Election Commission shall not be able to hear appeals of its own decisions. The deadlines in this section are amendable at the request of any party with approval of the Superior Court.

8. Election Fraud. All complaints regarding election fraud shall be submitted in writing to the Office of the General Counsel within three (3) business days of the close of the polls. The General Counsel shall review all complaints and determine whether there is sufficient cause to warrant formal charges. If the General Counsel decides to press formal charges, they shall notify the affected election official, collect all available evidence and testimony, and prosecute the offender in front of the Superior Court. The General Counsel shall make all decisions regarding whether they wish to press formal charges within five (5) business days of the incident which generated the charges or within three (3) business days of the close of the polls.
9. Superior Court Rulings. All rulings shall be publicly posted, and the Superior Court shall distribute the ruling to all candidates by e-mail.
10. Election Validation. The Superior Court shall meet on the fourth (4th) business day after the submission of the Election Report to consider the validation of the election. If there is any case pending before the Superior Court relating to the election, the timeline shall be suspended until the Court rules on the pending matter. Upon issuance of a ruling the aforementioned timeline shall resume. During validation proceedings there shall be a presumption of administrative regularity unless clear and convincing evidence is presented to the contrary.
 - a. The Superior Court shall not be permitted to raise any issues pertaining to the election sua sponte. It shall only invalidate the election in accordance with the standards set forth in this title based upon issues expressly and specifically raised in an official complaint or appeal considered and ruled upon prior to validation proceedings.
 - b. If the Superior Court fails to rule whether the election is valid or not valid within seven (7) business days of the close of the polls, the election shall be considered valid – subject only to the basis of claims arising explicitly from provisions of the SGA Constitution. In the event that questions may arise from any election which the Superior Court may need to decide before validating the results of the election, or in the case of a runoff election, the Superior Court may validate the results of all completed races independently of those races which it decides are not ready for validation.
 - c. Upon the validation of the election, the Election Commissioner must send the election results to all Norman Campus students via an OU Mass Mail (OUMM) within forty-eight (48) hours of the validation. They may only send which candidate won which position.
11. Standing. With the exception of issues raised by the General Counsel and the Election Commissioner, the Superior Court shall not hear any matter relating to an election unless the petitioner first shows:
 - a. a distinct and palpable injury to themselves;
 - b. that the injury is caused by the challenged activity; and
 - c. that the injury is apt to be redressed by a remedy that Superior Court is able to grant.

 - b. a statement of the applicable rule of law;
 - c. an explanation of the rule of law;
 - d. an application of the rule to the facts of the dispute; and
 - e. a brief restatement of the conclusion or holding.
13. Grounds for Invalidation. The Superior Court shall not enjoin or invalidate an election unless there is clear and convincing evidence that the true will of the voting public is not reflected. To set aside an election, there must be gross fraud which leaves the intent of the voters in doubt or irregularities in the conduct of the election of such nature as to affect the result. The wrongs against the freedom of election must have prevailed, not slightly or in individual cases, but generally and to the extent to render the result doubtful.
14. Penalties. The Superior Court shall have no authority to disqualify any candidate except when confirming a decision of the Election Commission. Weighing the gravity and intent of each incident, the Superior Court may confirm, overturn, or reduce any points imposed by the Election Commission. The Superior Court shall have no power to impose any other points except those based upon issues raised in an official complaint or appeal. It shall report such findings to Student Affairs for possible disciplinary action. It shall also report such findings to the Congressional Administration Committee of the Undergraduate Student Congress so that that body may initiate censure and impeachment proceedings as appropriate.
15. Congressional Administration Committee Oversight. Upon the validation of the election by the Superior Court, the Election Commissioner must schedule an oversight meeting with the Congressional Administration Committee. They shall present to the committee the Election Report, unofficial notifications, and other documents requested by the Congressional Administration Committee Chair.
16. Violations of Federal, State, and Local Law. Although all candidates and election officials are expected to comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, nothing in this title shall be misconstrued so as to create a charge or a cause of action under which a candidate may be punished, fined, or disqualified by any SGA official, board, commission, or court. Remedy for such actions must be pursued through the appropriate federal, state, or local authorities.
17. Violations of the University Rules and Policies. Although all candidates and election officials are expected to comply with all of the university's rules and policies, nothing in this title, unless explicitly stated, shall be misconstrued so as to create a charge or a cause of action under which a candidate may be punished, fined, or disqualified by any SGA official, board, commission, or court.
