Mission Statement

Moment of Silence

Approval of Minutes

Representative Broadbent seconded by Representative Yanez

Chair's Report – Good evening. Elections tonight and the opportunity to see primary tonight. Elections can be confusing. Person who motioned to nominate a candidate recognized a 2 minute speech, then candidate gets 5 minute speech, then 10 minutes questions. Then, option for executive session, an off the record conversation without anyone not SGA essential personnel. I'll be turning off the camera and microphone in executive session, if you want to participate in that you need to be here in person. For primary, this is not to disregard the work of WAM. They put in hours and did a good job on that, I commend the committee for the work they did. There was also a misunderstanding about the various timelines about primary that prevented us from hearing any amendments. We can continue the discussion of primary funding and any amendments. Also, due to issues of decorum last meeting, the universal Zoom chat is not enabled. Participants can send private messages to myself and Vice Chair Marvin if you have questions or informational things. On decorum, all members remember that questioning the motives of any member is forbidden. You will be gavelled down or muted and your time to speak will be revoked. I don't like doing that, so keep your remarks respectful. We're all here for the same goal. If we're still meeting at 8:05, we need recess from 8:05-8:25 for Ramadan. Last meeting with Vice Chair Marvin and Secretary Tucker, so thank them for all their hard work. Also thank you both for your dedication and support this year.

Vice Chair's Report – This is my last meeting. It's been a pleasure serving y'all. I hope I was able to accomplish the things I set out to. I can make sure any concerns can be communicated to the next vice chair. I want to execute the Bylaws as effectively as possible. Transition docs are done, and you can ask to see those if you want to know my expectations are for the position. I'll be back next week for a senior speech. Like Chair South said, anything in the chat goes straight to me. If you can't hear, let me know and I'll try to repeat things. We try to have in person people come to the mic, but please let me know if any other steps need to be taken. Lastly, thank you to Chair South and Secretary Tucker and all the committee chairs for all their hard work. My expectations of this body after I leave is that we keep in mind the reason we're here outside our own personal gain. We can do that by being respectful in emails, texts, Zoom chats, face to face, and behind their backs. I appreciate the hard work everyone's done. I'm proud when I get to tell people all the projects we've done, like trash walks, light walks, pass/fail, etc.

Secretary's Report – Hi everyone! Hope you all are doing alright. This is my last meeting, and I'm so honored to have been able to serve as your secretary this year. Thank you to Chair South, Vice Chair Marvin, and all the committee chairs, you all work so hard and it's been so wonderful working with you.

Liaison Reports

Harman: Hi y'all, Alpha Lambda Delta is having a benefit night Monday April 26 5-9 at Baked Bear. Proceeds go to OU Food Pantry. Please mention ALD at the register.

Tucker: Write Club, Wednesday, May 5, 7-9, at Second Wind outside.

Lange: It's Green Week right now, events on Zoom and otherwise for environmental things. Should be a flyer in the previous Congress group. Treefest April 30, keep your eyes out for that. Several hundred saplings we're planting around Norman and replacing some of the trees damaged in the ice storm.

Yanez: Diversity Inclusion Awareness club is having a Kahoot May 2 at 7pm. Zoom info I'll send in the chat. College Dems having last meeting of the year Wednesday.

- Congress Vice Chair

Lynskey: Through my time in Congress, I've seen different leaders. Some are fiery in their disagreement, some are vocal, some do what they need to do without being asked. That is the leader Sidney May is. She's led in social media. She's worked hard for the university community without spotlight or recognition. Sidney is the obvious choice. She is a proven leader. She's kind and compassionate and treats every member with respect. She's willing to do the work. She'll be able to build on the programs from last session from Vice Chair Marvin. She's kind and compassionate with the skills asked of her by the position.

May: I'm Sidney May. I joined Congress as a representative and worked in university policy committee and COSCO as secretary. I'm honored to be surrounded by people who want to make campus better. I want to connect more with each other as a body. I know we all fight for what we think is best for our community. I feel Congress has strayed from its original purpose. Chosen to be leaders of the student body. We need to ensure respect for community is extended within the body. Whether opinions differ or not, we're still college students. We need to make sure Congress is a welcoming environment. Extends to every individual of SGA. Associates, community, engagement. I want to continue redefining associates work in Congress. 2 important things, a mock body meeting and associate mentorship program. We're planning on having mock body meeting so associates can become familiar with everything. Structure of SGA outside Congress, we want to have an intro to SGA event. I'd like to establish an associate member program with representatives. Three things: updating color scheme on IG. 1 member from each committee on PR team. I think it's imperative for all members to complete implicit bias tests. Calendar as well for RSOs and off campus resources. Setting up Congress tabling event during welcome week for info on how to get involved. I'd like to work to institute Congress wide events that affect the Norman community. Early connections with other SGA leaders at other universities and including EA chair in attendance. Streaming option for orientation. Icebreakers, interactive parl pro format, committee presentations.

Halsey-Kraus: Bylaws, how many Congressional service opportunities does the VC need to present to the body?

May: I don't know.

Poupore: Any plans to bridge gap between exec and Congress?

May: Yes. I think it'd be good to do monthly meeting with all committee chairs and Congress exec and executive branch for less confusion when they come to general body meetings. Cabinet members would like to be involved in Congress-wide events for community.

Sertovic: How are you planning on integrating international students into the body and give them more representation?

May: Community section, whole month to international students on IG. I'll continue it from COSCO in my work as VC.

Halsey-Kraus: Never served on executive committee before, how will this affect your service?

May: I haven't worked on exec before, but I've spoken extensively with members of the executive committee. I believe I'm fully prepared to fulfill the position entails.

Yanez: Pairing associates with reps, are you aware that there are reps that aren't super sure how things work?

May: I've considered that, but it's a pilot program and we'll adjust for that. Associates want a more personal relationship. It'd be less intimidating for them to have someone to ask questions to and we'll update it as needed.

- Congress Secretary

Broadbent: Coy Taylor embodies every qualities needed in a secretary. Intimate knowledge of the Bylaws. Coy has worked to improve the secretary position through the point system and he's served on the election commission. He's a great friend and a hard worker. He's a sound choice for the office of secretary.

Taylor: Thank you Representative Broadbent and Hale for my nomination and second. I'm Coy Taylor, he/him. Meteorology. Associate on ConAd, was appointed as the ex officio officer of the election commission. A few values of mine. Transparency. Any governmental body, big or small, should be transparent as possible. I'll build on transparency set by previous leadership. Documentation of minutes and agendas available in a timely manner. Involvement. I hope to spark involvement of members within the body and outside with RSOs and Norman community. Point system promotes involvement and community. Connection. Pandemic left us without human connection we need. Light at the end of the tunnel. I hope to foster connections. My office will be an open door. Don't hesitate to reach out if anything is on your mind. I'm an open book and would be happy to field any questions.

Hale: Haven't held an executive leadership position. How will this impact your ability to serve?

Taylor: Haven't held a position, but I've been at executive committee meetings consistently. I was also appointed as ex officio officer this election cycle and reported to ConAd and Chair Hillis with any pertinent info on elections.

Hillis: Because we're in the legislative branch, writing and passing legislation is our only job. What pieces of legislation have your passed?

Taylor: Passed and authored an update to legislation in the Bylaws, changing wording to switch platforms. Authored point system in effect now and a governing docs tests in effect this session going into the fall. Look forward to implementing that.

Student Concerns

Old Business

Items to Be Considered

Motion to suspend the rules and reconsider Primary as a block by Voice Vote

Representative Broadbent seconded by Representative Halsey-Kraus

AB-105-05 Primary Funding Act of 2021 for Registered Student Organizations (Patton) (WAM, Do Pass)

AB-105-06 Primary Funding Act of 2021 for Governmental Organizations (Patton) (WAM, Do Pass)

Patton: Listened to concerns of the constituents. They weren't fully aware an amendment could be made last week. There's not a basis to make changes based on what WAM considers, but some groups feel overlooked. We have a fiscally responsible decision. Decrease Congress to 2400 and CAC to 13399.?? Increasing AISA to 11850, increases IAC to 30k and increase AASA to 9k. Comes from CAC. This makes CAC just over 133k. This puts the orgs where they were last primary. Exception is AASA because they didn't have primary last year. Did the previous fiscal year. Reminding the body of what WAM looks at: fiscal history, uniqueness, scope, quality, and if what the budget asks for aids the organization's mission. We have a friendly amendment, but I'll yield to questions.

Papahronis: FA with all of those budget changes?
