- CAC Candidates Forum

1. You both served as the chairs of your respected CAC events, how has serving as the chair of your event prepared you to be the Chair of CAC?
2. It is not uncommon to hear the phrase "involvement is dying" on our campus. How do you plan to combat this issue and restore CAC to a higher potential?
3. A critical point of student involvement is cultivating community for members. How do you plan on creating a welcoming environment while also promoting all events?

4. How do you believe each organization under CAC should be funded? Do you think it should be equal or should it vary?
5. If you could only implement one platform point, which would it be?
6. If elected, how do you plan on feasibly putting your platform into action? What would your first steps be?
7. CAC is a branch of SGA, how do you plan on connecting CAC better with the other branches of SGA?
