TOP 10 THINGS TO SEE

Check out these “must see” places at the University of Oklahoma. Read the historical building markers across campus to learn about the history and tradition of OU. To register for an official campus tour in the future, visit tour.ou.edu.

5 Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art
The Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art houses works of art by Degas, Monet, and Van Gogh, and admission is free for guests!

20 Oklahoma Memorial Union
Stop by for a coffee or snack in this spot that also houses Student Life, the One U Store, and more. Visit the Clarke Anderson Room to see a Sooner Schooner, the official mascot of OU.

34 Lissa and Cy Wagner Hall
This beautiful building houses all freshman programs and serves as a central location for the main academic services that are available to students, like free tutoring and the OU Writing Center.

19 Buchanan Hall
Named after James Buchanan, OU’s fourth president, Buchanan Hall was built in 1926 and now houses OU’s Student Financial Center. It’s a key spot on campus for OU students!

16 Evans Hall
One of the most photographed buildings in Oklahoma, Evans Hall is home to both the President’s Office and Office of the Provost. It showcases our iconic Cherokee Gothic campus architecture.

37 Bizzell Memorial Library
Go inside to see the ornate Great Reading Room and the Helmerich Collaborative Learning Center filled with technology, a student recording studio, and spaces that foster collaboration and creativity.
Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium
This is home to Sooner football, which has the most victories and best winning percentage of any team since the end of World War II.

Residential Colleges
These colleges provide an intimate and supportive living community designed to promote the social, intellectual, and personal growth of OU undergraduates.

David L. Boren Hall
The Joe C. and Carole Kerr McClendon Honors College provides a challenging academic program for intellectually motivated undergraduate students, and the courtyard serves as a peaceful study spot.

Walker Center
One of OU’s freshman residence halls, Walker Center offers students a suite-style room. Stop by the showroom to see the place many Sooner freshmen call home.

INSTAGRAM-WORTHY

Love Statue
Located by Jacobson Hall, this statue is a rendition of the iconic “LOVE” sculpture by pop artist Robert Indiana. Be sure to include #loveOU in any pics you post!

Great Reading Room
A must-see location, stepping into the Great Reading Room may feel like walking right into a scene from Harry Potter. Find it just inside the south entrance of Bizzell Memorial Library.

Union Courtyard
With brick walls covered in ivy, hanging lights, and umbrella-covered tables, the Union Courtyard is the perfect spot to enjoy a beautiful afternoon.

Clock Tower
This landmark, located outside Bizzell Memorial Library, is the perfect background. Just don’t walk under the tower: Legend has it that students who do so will not graduate in four years.

BONUS SPOT

Tom Love Innovation Hub (on the Research Campus)
Equipped with virtual reality programs and a digital fabrication lab with 3D printers, laser cutters, a full woodshop, and more, the Innovation Hub is open to all members of the community.
