

WEITZENHOFFER FAMILY COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS
HELMERICH SCHOOL OF DRAMA
The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA

Unleashing the Director in You

The University of Oklahoma Helmerich School of Drama's MFA in Directing is a rigorous and expansive three-year program in which directors deepen and hone their directing skills.

Directors will...

- Direct Three Productions
- Assist Professional Directors on Three Productions
- Teach In the School of Drama
- Classes in directing, leadership, dramaturgy, intimacy for directors, and more

This program is for...

- Two highly motivated, visionary directors per year
- Early to mid-career artists who are ready to practice, think critically about their field, and lead
- Theatre artists who know what direction they wish their career to take
- Collaborators ready to work with actors, dramaturgs, designers and stage managers at the top of their field

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE VISIT WWW.OU.EDU/FINEARTS/DRAMA

640 PARRINGTON OVAL, NORMAN, OK 73019

MFA in Directing Degree Sheet

Required Core Courses

DRAM 5613	Graduate Directing Studio	18 Hours (3 per semester)
	Graduate Directing Practicum	18 Hours (3 per semester)
	Graduate Directing Seminar	6 Hours (1 per semester)
DRAM 5733	Dramaturgy for Graduate Students	3 Hours
DRAM 5163	Design and Production for Graduate Students	3 Hours
DRAM 5013	Intro to Graduate Studies	3 Hours

Elective Menu

	Intro to Pedagogy	3 Hours
	Theatrical Intimacy for Graduate Students	3 Hours
DRAM 4853	Theatre Management for Graduate Students	3 Hours
	Directing for the Camera	3 Hours
	Professional Semester	9 Hours

Graduate Directing Studio and Graduate Directing Seminar are repeatable. Both are required each semester except if Professional Semester is taken, in which case only Graduate Seminar is required.

Students may also take graduate electives offered throughout the University of Oklahoma with permission from the program offering the course.