The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA

Using Canvas? Here's what you need to know about midterm grades.

➤ 1000-level Courses: Grades will be automatically migrated from Canvas to ONE.

1. Update grades in Canvas by 11:59 pm on Tuesday of the deadline to enter midterm grades.
 - Ensure you input a score of 0 if a student hasn't completed an assignment.
More details: <http://askit.ou.edu/customer/portal/articles/2745780>
 - If a student has an excused assignment, make sure to enter EX in the gradebook for that assignment.
More details: <http://askit.ou.edu/customer/en/portal/articles/2926297>
 - Make individual adjustments to assignment grades, if necessary.
2. OU IT and Academic Records will automate the population of midterm grades into ONE.
 - The % Grade will be exported and converted into a Letter Grade using the standard 90:80:70:60% cutoffs for A:B:C:D Letter Grades.
3. Review students' midterm grades in ONE between 12 pm on Wednesday and 12pm on Thursday, following the deadline.
 - Please review the grades for accuracy in ONE.
4. If you would prefer to manually enter grades or do not use a standard A:B:C:D grade cutoff, then you can input grades into ONE with a spreadsheet upload or one-by-one entry.
 - Download your Canvas gradebook: <https://community.canvaslms.com/docs/DOC-2849>
 - IT Learning Spaces can assist with spreadsheet upload or one-by-one entry. Please send a request for assistance to schedule an appointment at <http://oucanvas.appointlet.com>.
